WILL TAKE STRIKE VOTETelephone Operators Discussed Higher Wage Scale
at Boston Meeting

On Wednesday next, Feb. 26, each local union of the New England Telephone Operators' union will take a vote on whether or not to go out on strike for a higher wage scale. This was decided upon at an all-day session of representatives of New England districts held yesterday at the Quincy house, Boston. The district which includes Lowell was represented by Miss Helen Moran, president of the Lowell chapter. This strike vote will be taken by men and women employees alike.

The new wage scale desired by the telephone operators was presented to Mr. Barlow some time ago and has received no consideration, the operators say. It calls for a minimum wage of $32 weekly, which may be obtained at the end of four years, and for a minimum wage for beginners of $10 a week. At present operators work for seven years to obtain a maximum of $20 a week.

On Monday a district representative will again meet at the Quincy house to report the results of the votes taken in individual chapters. Miss Julia O'Connor, international president, leaves Boston today for Springfield, Ill., to attend an executive board meeting which is called for the purpose of discussing the nation-wide situation.

PARIS, Feb. 20.—Was the attempt upon Premier Clemenceau's life of Bolshevik origin? is a question being insistently asked here.

The Matin today recalls that a few days ago a Geneva newspaper announced that the Bolsheviks in Lausanne, Switzerland, were plotting against his life and that two Bolsheviks had crossed the frontier to carry out the plan.

The Paris police, says the Petit Parisien, were warned some time ago that a plot was brewing against the premier's life. It states that the wife of a member of the French consular service formerly stationed in Russia, was in the Russian library in the Avenue Gobelins a fortnight ago, and overheard a discussion which made her sure that an attempt against the premier was in preparation. This library is one frequented by Maximilians. The woman informed her husband of what she had heard, and he notified the police, who assured him that the persons in question would be closely watched.

Passed Excellent Night

PARIS, Feb. 20.—Premier Clemenceau, who was wounded in the shoulder yesterday in the attempt by the young anarchist, Emile Comin, to assassinate him, was in a satisfactory condition this morning, according to the latest reports. No fever has developed.

It was stated at the premier's residence at 6.30 o'clock this morning, that he had passed an excellent night. The premier rested quietly through the night and did not awake until 8 o'clock. His first remark to Sister Therese, who is attending him, was: "I am a lay man. That is the first time in 20 years that I have been so late getting up."

Seriously Hurt
The premier certainly is seriously hurt, his condition is as satisfactory as possible, Georges Mandel, Premier Clemenceau's chief clerk, is quoted as saying at an early hour this morning. The quotation is attributed to the clerk by Marcel Huin, in the Echo de Paris.

Enforced inaction is weighing heavily upon the premier, and the doctors find him a bad patient, unwilling to obey all their orders. He insisted on receiving visitors all day yesterday, and in discussing current business with Stephen Pichon, the foreign minister.

George Washington Re-

—Steamer Will Anchor in
President Roads

BOSTON, Feb. 20.—The steamship George Washington, bringing President Wilson and Mrs. Wilson from France, will reach Boston on Monday, according to an official message from the steamer received today by Rear Admiral Spencer S. Wood, commanding the first naval district. The message was relayed by the battleship New Mexico, flagship of the conveying fleet. The New Mexico has been in direct wireless communication with the first naval district for the past 48 hours and yesterday sent word that the George Washington had received messages from Mayor Andrew J. Peters and others but could not reply because of atmospheric conditions.

The messages from the mayor were inquiries regarding the acceptability to the president of proposed details of the program for his visit. He was asked whether a night meeting at Mechanic's hall was agreeable; whether he wished to appear at a joint session of the legislature; whether he would be the guest of the reception committee at a luncheon and whether Mrs. Wilson would be the guest of the women of the city.

Applications for seats at Mechanic's hall, where President Wilson is expected to give his first word to the country on the proposed league of nations, fairly flooded the mails and caused hundreds of persons to visit city hall today. Mayor Peters said the applications already in hand exceeded the 7000 person capacity of the hall.

Governor Coolidge announced today that he had invited the governors of the other New England states to come here Monday on the occasion of the arrival of President Wilson.

A later message from the George Washington said that the steamship would reach Boston about 1 p. m. Monday and would anchor in President roads in the lower harbor. The presidential party will be transferred to the coast guard cutter Ossipee on which they will be brought to Commonwealth pier.

Troops Not to Disembark
The George Washington will then proceed to New York, where the returning troops will be disembarked. No troops will leave the steamer here. The message said that the president's convey was experiencing rough weather, but indicated that good progress was being made.

Rear Admiral Wood announced that six destroyers, the Stringham, Paulding, Walker, Walworth, Drayton and Conyngham would be sent out from here to meet the George Washington and escort her to an anchorage. Mayor Peters said that the tentative program would be unchanged, except that he probably would greet President Wilson on the Ossipee.

Distress Signals

NEW YORK, Feb. 20.—Eight thousand homeward bound American troops due here this week have been delayed by Atlantic storms which have partially disabled two vessels and retarded the passage of three others, the naval communication office announces. The ship in most serious trouble is the Emergency Fleet corporation freighter Polar Bear, whose distress signals in mid-ocean were answered by the transport President Grant. The liner may have to tow the cargo carrier into Bermuda, and this would postpone the four or five days the disembarkation of the President Grant's 1761 soldiers. The Polar Bear, 4355 gross tons, is a fabricated steel vessel, built last year at Baltimore. The wireless did not state the nature of her disablement. She was returning from Bordeaux with four annual passengers and freight. The cruiser Kansas, bringing 1930 troops, was forced by excessive fuel consumption in heavy weather to put into Bermuda for coal, and the Henderson with 127 sick and wounded on her passenger list, was reported overdue.

The Woonsocket returning from Bordeaux with 21 casualties aboard, sent a radio message that she had been delayed by loss of a propeller blade.

COUNCIL TRIMS CITY BUDGET

Department Estimates Must Be Slashed To Avoid $30 Tax Rate

Council Clipped Off $244,660 From Original Figures at Yesterday's Session

If the municipal council eventually votes in favor of giving to each department at city hall the amount of money that it has asked for in its 1919 estimates, as brought out in the budget discussed by the council late yesterday afternoon, the city's tax rate will jump about 35 per cent, or from $22.50 the present rate to $30.00.

However, it is hardly possible that the council will see fit to do this. Mayor Thompson, in conjunction with Commissioner James E. Donnelly of the finance department, has gone through every department estimate and recommended what, in his opinion, should be appropriated. If his recommendations are carried out to the letter, the 1919 tax rate will be increased about 35 per cent. That, however, does not make provision for the fact that the revenues of the assessors will be cut off this year to a considerable extent. A tax rate in the vicinity of $26 for 1920 does not seem wholly improbable, from indications evident at yesterday afternoon's first session of the council to consider the 1919 budget.

The session was one of the tamer of its kind witnessed in years, according to those who have followed up municipal finances. It lasted an hour and a half and no definite action was taken on any department estimate. Mayor Thompson simply read the expenditures in each department last year, the amount asked for this year and the amount which he himself recommended. The total amount recommended for all departments is $2,755,790. The total amount which the departments themselves want is $3,131,253.52. The total revenue in sight for 1919 is $2,561,115. If Mayor Thompson's recommendations are carried out, the total 1919 appropriation will be $144,335 more than there is actual revenue available at present.

His Honor recommended some pretty steep cuts in some of the departments and his cut in the buildings department brought hearty protest from Commissioner Marchand. A cut of $62,000 was recommended by the mayor in this department's estimates. Last year the department's expenses amounted to $58,715.21. This year's estimate is $122,014.20. Mayor Thompson recommended that it be given only $70,000. Commissioner Marchand said that the schools and fire houses were in "an awful condition." He didn't see how he could pull through. However, he was willing to bear his share of whatever slashing was considered necessary.

There was also a deep slash in the fire department estimate. This department wants $301,935.41 for 1919. In the opinion of the mayor, it can do business with only $251,000.

The school department estimates were not submitted until the last minute yesterday and were not taken up at the meeting. However, it was stated that if the school department gets what it wants, the city will have to spend $134,325 more than last year. The session opened at 2:45 with all members of the council and City Auditor Charles D. Paige present.

Boosting Tax Rate
Mayor Thompson said that the total estimates as submitted by the various departments amounted to $3,131,253.52 and that if this money were voted it would mean sending the tax rate up to nearly $30 per thousand. It is self-evident, he said, that there would have to be wholesale slicing in all departments. He believed that the price of commodities would decrease in the coming year and that this fact should be taken into consideration. The added expense of increased wages in many of the departments which was felt for only six months of last year, would have to be met throughout 1919. He believed that the amount of loans during the year might be a little beyond normal in order to provide work for those who need it.

Budget Taken Up
The budget was then taken up, page by page. The first was the mayor and commissioners' department. The total expenses last year, exclusive of the fixed charges, were $30,212.11. The estimate for 1919 had originally been placed at $50,500, but the mayor had sliced it later to $37,775. For fixed charges in the department, he recommended $34,125. The expenses last year were $27,182.18.

The law department's expenses last year were $498.58. This year, the mayor recommended $500, a decrease of $100 from the original estimate.

The total police department expenses last year were $218,566.29. The 1919 estimate was reduced from $219,562.33 to $209,000. In addition to this, $3950 was estimated for the police wire department.

The health office expenses in 1918 were $27,044.68. The mayor expressed himself willing to get along with $20,000 this year, although his original estimate was $23,578.57.

The health yard cost the city $35,172.55 in 1918. The mayor would be satisfied with $102,000 this year, he said. His first estimate was $150,147.62.

The milk department's expenses last year amounted to $200,69. This year $2200 is recommended.

The charity department spent $57,716.19 in 1918. Despite the fact that more people have applied for help in that department in the last two months than in any similar period for some time back, the mayor was willing to set down his estimate from $27,812.86 to $15,000.

The city of Lowell street hospital cost $115,000 last year. This year the mayor recommended $100,000.

For the dependent mothers' department, $50,000 is asked. Last year $45,121.16 was spent.

The state aid department expenses in 1918 were $35,314.43. This year $31,000 is wanted.

The auditor's department spent $207,450 last year. This year's estimate was $210,000. The mayor recommended that the figure be reduced to $200,000. At the request of Commissioner Donnelly, City Auditor Paige read a letter from the assessors recommending that a tax list be published said that money was needed for the repair of schools and firehouses.

Mayor Thompson replied that loans could be obtained for such work and the men in the department paid out of those loans, thus decreasing the payroll expenses of the department as far as the appropriation was concerned.

Commissioner Marchand said that a number of salaries had been raised last year, but the mayor thought that this would be offset to some extent by the decrease in the price of commodities.

The city messenger's department expenses last year were $1505.69. The mayor recommended that $1500 be given this year.

The city hall department spent $24,517.17 in 1918. This year $24,000 was recommended.

The license commission spent $1629.74 last year. This year $1700 is recommended.

The rifle range cost $1230.16 in 1918. The 1919 estimate called for $1625, but the mayor thought this could be reduced to $1300.

The weigher's department spent $1008 last year. For 1919, $1010 is recommended. The comfort station cost $6298.13 last year and $7500 is recommended for this year. The moth department expended $7602.27 last year and it is recommended that it get $7500 this year. The wire department spent $2505.82 last year and it is recommended for $2500 this year. The sealers' department spent $5593.71, and $6000 is the figure recommended for this year.

The park department estimate came in for a slashing, according to the mayor's recommendation. The total expenses of the department last year were $23,354.23. This year the estimate called for $24,813.72. The mayor recommended that this be reduced to $25,000.

The city library cost the city $18,017.00 last year. This year it is recommended that it be given $20,000. The sum of $26,000 is also asked for the isolation hospital.

This concluded all the department estimates with the exception of the school department. At 4:15 the council voted to adjourn until Thursday at 2:30 p. m.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION IN THE SCHOOLS

Dr. Carl L. Schrader, assistant to Dr. Sargent, physical director at Harvard university, spoke to a fairly large audience of teachers and others interested in body education in the schools last evening in High school hall on the topic: "Physical Education in the Schools." Dr. Schrader came here at the invitation of the school committee, which has just inaugurated a system of physical training in the local grammar schools at the suggestion of one of its members, General Gardner W. Pearson. His address proved most interesting and emphasized the need of legislation for compulsory physical education.

He was introduced by Supt. Hugh J. Molloy, who expressed the opinion that this country had not given sufficient attention to physical instruction and thought that there should be more interest in the work.

In opening, Dr. Schrader said that there was now a bill before the state legislature calling for physical instruction in the schools and he appealed for its support by educators.

He warned his listeners against fatalists on the subject, people who had become interested only recently and who hadn't given the matter any depth of thought. He felt that closer watch should be kept on children in the schools and that the teacher should cooperate with the medical inspector and school nurse in detecting defects. Parents must also co-operate, he said, if the best results are to be obtained.

He recommended more gymnasiums and swimming plunges in the schools and if these couldn't be had, basements and corridors should be used.

"I believe in competitive sports," he continued, "under leaders selected by the contestants. In many schools the question of teaching play has been neglected. There should be a play curriculum for the various grades and conditions. The organized recess is a good method to introduce for this purpose. It is full of possibilities. The first demand you must make is time. It requires a 20-minute period to accomplish results, and the child must not be deprived of the usual play period.

"The question of physical education does not belong exclusively to grammar and high schools, but it belongs to the community as a whole. For example, men in middle age have tripled their numbers in gymnasiums since the war. Here is a time when breaking down occurs, and require the protection of physical discipline.

Gen. Pearson spoke briefly on the system which had already been installed in the local grammar schools and said that the basic idea was to depart from the old-time way of physical training that has become so monotonous. He referred to the possibility of another war and believed that Lowe should do her part to make her people fit.

SAVE YOUR HAIR! A SMALL BOTTLE STOPS DANDRUFF

Every bit of dandruff disappears and hair stops coming out.

Try this! Your hair appears glossy, abundant, wavy and beautiful.

Thin, brittle, colorless and scraggy hair is mute evidence of a neglected scalp; of dandruff—that awful scurf. There is nothing so destructive to the hair as dandruff. It robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life; eventually producing a feverishness and itching of the scalp, which if not remedied causes the hair roots to shrink, loosen and die—then the hair falls out fast. A little Danderine tonight—now—anything—will surely save your hair.

Get a small bottle of Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter for a few cents and after the first application your hair will take on that life, lustre and luxuriance which it is so beautiful. It will become wavy and fluffy and have the appearance of abundance, softness and strength; but what will please you most will be after just a few weeks' use, when you will actually see a lot of fine, downy hair—new hair—growing all over the scalp.

Danderine is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them. Its exhilarating and life-producing properties cause the hair to grow long, strong and beautiful.

PETITION TO RECALL ST. LOUIS MAYOR

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 20.—Petitions said to contain 42,000 signatures for the recall of Mayor Henry W. Kiel for alleged malfeasance in office have been filed with the board of election commissioners by representatives of the civic and citizens' referendum leagues.

Under the municipal laws, 25,000 signatures are sufficient to invoke a recall election and if the petitions are found to be valid, the election will be held April 1.

The grievance against the mayor grew out of the agreement made with the United Railways company, recently, by which the company was granted a 29 year franchise to use the city's streets in return for payment of $2,500,000 accrued taxes.

TAFT WOULDN'T TRUST FOES OF LEAGUE

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 20.—The gentlemen in the senate who are acting out to defeat this league of nations are those I would not trust over night," Ex-President William H. Taft said yesterday at a luncheon given in his honor by civic organizations as a part of the program of the Pacific coast congress for the League to Enforce Peace.

"They are citing the constitution as an argument against it," continued Mr. Taft.

"I revere and worship that great instrument, and it is a new story to me if the constitution prevents this people from playing their part in bringing peace and order and happiness to ourselves and the other peoples of the world."

"This is not a political question. God forbid, I am glad President Wilson went to Europe, because he went bearing a promise of a league of nations."

"The application at this time of the doctrine of avoiding entangling alliances is reactionary to the extent of delaying world peace 100 years. The question at this time is whether the whole great plan of the league of nations is to be defeated because we can't get a two-thirds majority of our senate for its ratification."

SUCCEEDS SHARP

Wallace Selected To Be Ambassador to France

BOSTON, Feb. 20.—By wireless from the steamer George Washington, en route here from France, President Wilson announces the selection of Hugh C. Wallace as new ambassador to France, succeeding William Graves Sharp. Mr. Wallace is a resident of Tacoma, Wash., and has been a long-time friend of the president. He is also a close acquaintance of Col. E. M. House. Mr. Wallace has been considered for some time for a post abroad, being well versed in international politics.

LEGISLATION TO PUNISH ANARCHISTS

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20.—Legislation to punish anarchistic activities or propaganda and the display of flags or other emblems of violence, was recommended unanimously today by the senate judiciary committee.

The committee drafted and ordered favorably reported a measure combining the "red flag" bill of Senator New of Indiana and other bills designed to check unlawful agitation.

said that plans are under way to have a tag day here on Monday and Mr. Hockmeyer wants 1000 women and girls to take part. The drive will last from 9 in the morning until 9 in the evening.

Saturday (Washington's birthday) will be given over to a house-to-house canvass. The final meeting of the drive will be held next Monday evening.

The speaker at today's luncheon was Mrs. H. H. Atkinson, who has been in Armenia for a number of years with her husband, a doctor at one of the hospitals there. Her husband recently died and she has carried on the hospital work almost unaided.

She painted a vivid and appealing picture of the sufferings which the Armenians have undergone at the hands of the Kurds and she said that some of the conditions were indescribable. She said that although considerable relief work had already been done, there was still room for much more.

All Souls' church made the largest individual report today, $645. The town of Westford reported $500. The various reports were as follows:

BILL TO REPEAL WAR-TIME PROHIBITION

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20.—Representative Gallivan of Massachusetts, yesterday introduced a bill to repeal the war-time prohibition rider on the food stimulation act. It was referred to the committee on agriculture.

Mr. Gallivan characterized the war prohibition measure as a "statutory lie" and a "statutory fraud."

"It was wicked in conception and wicked in its adoption," he continued.

"Congress does many strange and inconceivable things. This act was one of the strangest. The Anti-Saloon league lobbied chided themselves around the corridors of the capitol when this bill was up and their activities were often questionable."

"I'd like to see Pres. Wilson speak right out in the open on this important American question when he returns. I am strongly in favor of repeal and hope to see the question come up quickly."

A subcommittee of the house judiciary committee yesterday considered a bill for the enforcement of the war-time prohibition law. At the meeting Congressman Graham of Pennsylvania called attention to the unrest in the country and said the labor unions are greatly disturbed.

"This is radical and fanatical," said he.

Before Mr. Graham concluded his speech Acting Chairman Carlin announced that the committee was in executive session and further consideration of the matter was behind closed doors.

Representative Dyer, republican, Missouri, a member of the judiciary committee, expressed approval yesterday of the movement to repeal the war prohibition rider. "The proper thing is to repeal it," he said. "If we do not repeat it congress will soon enact a law putting up to the executive department the enforcement of it.

Some committee was raised in the judiciary committee that it was a war-time measure and that instead of regulations being made for its enforcement it ought to be repealed.

The president did not sign it and it became law. If prohibition is wanted that way there is nothing for the judiciary committee to do except report a bill putting the enforcement of it up to the executive department—so that it will have to enforce it to the letter."

NEWS OF THE DAY IN THE POLICE COURT

John Dine, 15; Cyril Davis, 17; John Roddy, 18, and William J. Caloin, 17, were called on continuance in police court this morning on a complaint charging them with fraudulently securing $132 from the Middlesex Trust Co.

A plea of guilty was entered in each case, and Dine, Roddy and Caloin were given suspended sentences to the Massachusetts reformatory, they agreeing to each make restitution of one-third of the above amount. Davis was given a direct sentence to the industrial school at Shirley.

Adolphe Rochette and Louis Thifault, two young men under 20, pleaded guilty to snatching a handbag from Miss Catherine Griffin last Saturday evening while she was going up Moody street towards her home. The bag contained $9 in money and some other small articles. A continuance was granted until tomorrow, bail being set at $500 each.

Felix Garneau, another young man, scarcely out of his teens, pleaded guilty to breaking, entering and larceny of 250 cigars, valued at 10 cents each, and 10 packages of cigars, valued at 15 cents each, the property of Bennie Rosler. This occurred on the night of February 18. A continuance until tomorrow was granted in his case also, and he was ordered held in the sum of $500. Fred Cote, a boy of the same age as Garneau, pleaded guilty to receiving stolen property which, in this case, consisted of the cigars which are alleged to have been stolen from Mr. Rosler, and was also continued until tomorrow, bail being set at $300.

"If you go in to work today we'll get you to pieces," testified little Panagiotis Tavoularis when she took the stand and explained to the court how Louis and Mary Kolinas had attempted to intimidate her while she was going to her work in the spinning room of the Appleton mills last Friday morning. Judge Enright found the woman guilty of intimidation and she was ordered to pay the costs of the trial and be more careful of her language in the future.

INTER-ALLIED COMMISSION INVESTIGATING THE SITUATION IN POLAND

WARSAW, Tuesday, Feb. 18.—(By the Associated Press).—The Inter-Allied commission appointed by the peace conference to investigate the situation in Poland is rapidly getting settled and is preparing to face many problems, the most important of which are the food supply and the differences between the Poles and the Ukrainians regarding the oil region near Lemberg.

In regard to the oil dispute, the Ukrainian government announces that it will not negotiate with the Poles as long as the Poles occupy any of the territory in dispute.

The Ukrainians threaten to burn the oil wells in their possession if they are forced to retreat. It is estimated that 500,000,000 francs of French, British and Belgian capital is invested in the oil fields. The Ukrainians are obtaining arms by the sale of oil in Budapest and other places.

The American members of the mission believe that after first aid in the form of clothes and food is given to Poland, credit should be extended so that the relief work can proceed along regular lines.

The inter-allied mission must fix the boundaries of Poland and the neighboring states that there shall be no more dispute between neighbors.

The Polish campaign against the Bolsheviks and peasant bands become more active each day. The Poles found a large quantity of munitions at Brest-Litovsk. They are getting guns and rifles from the retreating Germans and even from the Bolsheviks.

FLYNN CHAIRMAN OF HUB FINANCE BOARD

BOSTON, Feb. 20.—Gov. Coolidge yesterday nominated George A. Flynn, assistant corporation counsel for the city of Boston, to be chairman of the Boston finance commission at a salary of $5000 a year. He succeeded John R. Murphy, who has been appointed re-construction by Mayor Lister.

The governor also nominated William F. Churchill of Boston to be a member of the state commission on firemen's relief funds. Mr. Churchill succeeds John Grady, who resigned.

STRIKE AT HOG ISLAND

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 20.—Work was virtually at a standstill at the Hog Island shipyard today due to a strike of 100 foremen for higher pay. Recently they asked for an increase of approximately $4 a week. This would bring their weekly earnings to about $70. About 25,000 persons are employed at the yard.

KEEP LOOKING YOUNG

It's Easy—If You Know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

The secret of keeping young is to feel young—to do this you must watch your liver and bowels—there's no need of having a sallow complexion—dark rings under your eyes—pimples—a bilious look in your face—dull eyes with no sparkle. Your doctor will tell you ninety per cent of all sickness comes from inactive bowels and liver.

Dr. Edwards, a well-known physician in Ohio, perfected a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil to act on the liver and bowels, which he gave to his patients for years.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, are gentle in their action yet always effective. They bring about that exuberance of spirit, that natural buoyancy which should be enjoyed by everyone, by cleaning up the liver and clearing the system of impurities.

You will know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets by their olive color. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

Stamford Extract Plant Wiped Out—12 Buildings Burned

STAMFORD, Conn., Feb. 20. Fire swept the plant of the Stamford Extract Manufacturing company here last night, and between 12 and 15 brick and wooden buildings in an area of 10 acres were destroyed. Frequent explosions of chemicals and a high wind prevented the firemen from checking the flames. The loss was estimated at $750,000.

THREATS TO GET MONEY

LAWRENCE, Feb. 20.—The police last night were investigating letters received by several residents of the adjoining town of Andover in which it is alleged that threats were made in connection with demands for money in support of the striking textile workers here. The police did not make public the names of the signers of the letters.

John Golden, president of the United Textile Workers of America, in a letter received by the local head of this organization yesterday, reiterated the determination of the national body to obtain a 48-hour week for textile workers all over the country. He made it plain that the United Textile Workers were not in sympathy with the demand of the strikers in this city for 54 hours' pay for the shorter working week.

UNCLE SAM WANTS FIREMEN

Fifteen hundred husky young Americans are wanted to learn the business of firing boilers on the new ships of Uncle Sam's merchant marine.

Yes, Uncle Sam is going to need a lot of healthy young men to keep the steam up in the marine service, and can use 1500 applicants a month until further notice. Young men wishing to become members of this branch of the service should apply to the local enlistment station which has been established at 112½ State street, or write to Henry Howard, director of recruiting for the merchant marine custom house, Boston.

The men accepted will be placed on training ships at $30 a month training pay for a month and will then be sent on deep water voyages at $75 a month. Uniform and board are furnished. The voyages will be varied, to allow the recruits to see as much of the world as possible, and the possibilities of promotion are very good for those who show aptitude in their new duties.

Discharged soldiers and naval reservists are eligible for this work, and any young man of good physique and habits, weighing 140 pounds or more, will be accepted.

SEN. WEEKS ACCUSES CONTROL-LER WILLIAMS OF RELING WITH "HEAVY HAND"

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20.—Senator Weeks of Massachusetts continued his attack upon Controller of the Currency Williams today before the senate banking committee. He said Mr. Williams had a "quarrelsome disposition" and was prone to get into difficulty with those engaged in the banking business.

The small proportion of increases in national banks compared to the number of state banks established annually, the senator asserted, was due to the fear of discipline imposed by the controller and his manner of ruling with a "heavy hand."

WATCH ON THE RHINE

Big British Force Will Make
German Way of Revenge
Impossible

LONDON, Feb. 20.—The British government intends to maintain an army of 500,000 men during 1919, Col. Winston Spencer Churchill, secretary of state for war, announced at a meeting here yesterday.

It will be necessary to keep a strong well-disciplined British army on the Rhine for some time to come, he declared. There is no expectation that the army of occupation in Germany can be maintained on any other basis this year than the compulsory basis, he said, but for the rest the government is replacing the conscripted men on far distant foreign stations with volunteers.

"The whole effectiveness of the league of nations depends upon the allies having a reasonably trustworthy military force in close proximity to Germany," Col. Churchill said.

"We are going to take measures," he added, "to make it physically impossible for Germany to begin a war for revenge, at any rate in our lifetime."

"We are going to take a few trustworthy persons well provided with what President Wilson would call instrumentalities, to keep watch by the Rhine and to make Germany pay reparation for the damage she has done."

Tells How to Stop a Bad Cough

Surprising results from this famous old home-made syrup. Easily prepared and costs little.

If you have a severe cough or chest cold accompanied with soreness, throat tickle, hoarseness, or difficult breathing, or if your child wakes up during the night with a cough and you want quick help, try this reliable old home-made cough remedy. Any druggist can supply you with 2½ ounces of Pinex. Pour this into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup. Or you can use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup. Instead of sugar syrup, if desired. This recipe makes a pint of really remarkable cough remedy. It tastes good, and in spite of its low cost, it can be depended upon to give quick and lasting relief.

You can feel this take hold of a cough in a way that means business. It loosens and soothes the phlegm, closes the throat and soothes and heals the irritated membranes that line the throat and bronchial tubes with such promptness, ease and certainty that it is really astonishing.

Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, and is probably the best known means of overcoming severe coughs, throat and chest colds.

There are many worthless imitations of this mixture. To avoid disappointment, ask for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with full directions and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

STRIKE SPREADS
IN GERMANY

BERLIN, Wednesday, Feb. 19 (By the Associated Press).—The general strike in the Ruhr industrial district continues to spread in spite of the fact that a large majority of the miners, as shown by votes taken at many places, oppose the movement.

The socialist Vorwarts and the bourgeois newspapers declare that the strike is a political movement instigated by Spartacan and independent socialist leaders.

Spartacans from Dusseldorf, according to reports received here, have disarmed the police of Muhlheim and taken away cannon and mine throwers from the Muhlheim barracks for use against government troops.

The Spartacans announced their intention of carrying the strike into central Germany for "a final struggle between labor and capital."

The police and local militia at Gelsenkirchen have risen against the Spartacans and driven them from the buildings which they occupied earlier in the week.

At Elberfeld the Spartacans proclaimed a general strike and compelled the factories to close. A lively fight was carried on for possession of the railway station, but the Spartacans finally occupied it. There were losses on both sides.

AMUSEMENT NOTES

Below is what the press agents of the different theatres say of the current attractions and of others to come later.

B. P. KEITH'S THEATRE

It's a big joy bill at the B. P. Keith theatre this week, with Pat Rooney, best of laugh makers, heading it. Never did the diminutive comedian and dancer please more than on the occasion of his present visit. He is all joy and happiness and lively legs and new songs. If there are any more like him on the vaudeville stage, they have not been located. He is assisted by Joseph Santos.

Another wonderful comedy team is that of Hopper and Dickson, at Star Theatre. They are alive every minute of the time, and they carry an atmosphere with them that is decidedly different from the baby girl stunt is a smashing success.

And how about Chinko, the juggler, and his partner, the wonderful eye-ball act, with great success, and it is a knockout right from the start. And George N. Brown, the champion mile walker of the world, and Master Billy Watson, the Scot, who enters into a match with him right on the stage, are producers of much fun. Other good acts are those of Otto Kerner and "Pop," Kier-ner & Reaney in a nautical stunt, and Bowman & Brooks in a chummy musical act. There will be three shows on Saturday, beginning at 1.30, 4.30 and 7.45 p. m.

LOWELL OPERA HOUSE

If you haven't seen the week's presentation by the Lowell Opera House, you should avail yourself of the remaining opportunity. "The Wife He Bought" is an unusually good comedy drama that tells a gripping story of a brave young girl who gives herself up to a young man from the west, to save her father from financial ruin.
How the young man eventually wins her love and respect, is well told in the four acts. Julian Noa and Miss Jane Salisbury were never seen to better advantage. Some of their best emotional and dramatic efforts are reflected in their work. The remaining members of the cast are also good, and the staging of the piece most commendable.

Next week that greatest of all plays,
"Madame X," with Iona Magrane and Walter Gilbert of the Haverhill company in the leading roles.

THE STRAND

"Stolen Orders" will be shown at the Strand for the remainder of the week.
By special arrangement with the producers and at considerable extra expense, Manager Sellman has succeeded in securing this wonderful thrilling super-sensational production for the three days of the week. This change comes as a result of a general demand from the thousands of patrons who were unable to see the presentation during the first of the week. On Monday night it was found necessary to stop selling tickets soon after 7 o'clock and the same rule applied the following nights. Many of the regular patrons of the theatre experienced disappointment, and because of the extraordinary demand to see this truly remarkable picture, the management not only telephoned the theatre to New York yesterday afternoon and, by special arrangement, secured permission to hold the picture for the full week. It is the first time in a season that this rule was brushed aside to meet such a condition. Our advice now is to make application early during the remainder of the week and not be among the disappointed ones. We positively cannot hold it longer than this week.

"Stolen Orders" was produced by William A. Brady at a minimum original cost of $25,000. It is a picture-telling, the most successful of the Drury Lane melodrama by Cecil Raleigh and Henry Hamilton. Besides telling a gripping story, it unfolds in the most masterly manner every trick and device practiced by the crafty Hun during the war. It bares "the scourge of the earth." Space does not permit reviewing with any degree of satisfaction, just what the story is. Suffice it to say, that it will make a bigger and better American out of every one who sees it. Mr. Brady, the producer, had entire to certain circles during war times that was enjoyed by previous low in this country. Because of the rather unusual situation, he had the opportunity of seeing the purpose and entertaining power, as well as of the propaganda that such a presentation would carry with it, and his plans met with the genuine approval of even President Wilson himself. Remember, the prices for this performance remain the same.

And the rest of the bill will be made up of brand new features, including Carlyle Blackwell and Evelyn Greeley in one of their best pictureizations,
"Courage the Two." This is a story in a manner. It begins buzzing from the very beginning to the end. There isn't a single solitary dull moment in the entire film. It tells the story of some of the very best work of their career in it.
You'll enjoy this picture.

Then there's a Tom Mix comedy,
"Hearts and Kitchens," that is sure to meet with the popular approval of all lovers of good, wholesome humor. The "Lovers Weekly" will be the very last act, and time, cannot will be heard in new song numbers.

The local newspaper is the paper that reaches the home when the whole family is there to read it. The Sun also this field in Lowell.

IT PAYS TO READ ADS TOO

The old saying, "It pays to advertise" is as true now as it ever was, and more so. But, in pointing out the profit attached to advertising in this manner—"It pays to advertise"—one does not go far enough. It pays to read advertisements, all of them. It will pay the reader to read all the advertisements in today's Sun.

There are different ways in which it pays the reader to be keeping with the ads in this paper. The most consequential way is, of course, in the amounts of money saved. There is a payment in one's personal satisfaction. When a merchant makes a bid for your trade he is under the burden of proving he will sell you quality goods, although it should not be forgotten that one generally gets what he pays for.

Besides being paid in money and satisfaction the ad reader is generally benefited in time and effort. The advertiser knows exactly what you want and where you will find it, you don't have to look in many places and waste time looking for the article sought.

The best stores advertise. You will get the best quality of goods and the best values for the money in the best stores. If a store does business enough to advertise it is doing business enough to sell at bargain prices. Beware of the store which says, "Our business is not large enough to afford to advertise." You can correctly estimate the standard of merchandising, and find out the best and most profitable stores in which to trade by reading all the ads in

BORAH THE BORE

Senator Borah of Idaho, is an aspirant for the republican nomination for president of the United States. It is a praiseworthy aspiration to believe one is capable of completely filling the office of president of the United States.

In our private and national life, however, we Americans still retain some scruples about the manner in which a man shall start to get a better job or start to obtain a political office.

Idaho may be well enough satisfied with Senator Borah, but a good part of the rest of the country is beginning to think of him as a national pest. An actor or a politician who is always flitting around worrying himself and those surrounding him, into fits of desperation because he is afraid he will not be placed exactly in the middle of the spotlight, is always a pest.

President Wilson is going to give a nice dinner party at the White House to members of the foreign relations committee of congress, and in some part at least, will discuss the constitution of the proposed league of nations and incidentally report on what his high stewardship has accomplished. Republican senators, even if they come from Idaho, are not barred from this perfectly good party and have, in fact, been cordially invited.

All the rest of the committee except Borah, said they would sample some White House food and have access to the best source of information on the peace conference it is probably possible to reach in this country at the present time. Borah says he won't go. Borah says he wants to be free and unrestrained to keep on hammering against the president and against the league of nations, as has been his custom for some time now. Senator Lodge and Representative Rogers of Massachusetts say they will go. It looks now as if there wouldn't be any ghost to appear dragging chains at this banquet because, as we have intimated, this Shakespearean character doesn't get into the spotlight much and Senator Borah wants to be in the glare of it.

A JOB AND A MEDAL

The borough of Brooklyn announced the other day that every returned soldier and sailor would be given an excellent medal as a gift from the community.

Some one is always abstracting the jazz out of life and this time it was an editorial writer in Collier's Weekly. He said he wished Brooklyn would guarantee every returned soldier and sailor a job, along with the medal.

It was a pertinent observation and presumably Brooklyn is doing the best she can in this respect, just as every other conscientious American city and town is trying to thus do its duty.

It's an important function to make it a certainty in this country that when a man's government calls him away from his job, in order that wage earners here shall be paid in dollars and not in marks, when he returns from the war the channels are open by which he can be self-supporting again.

Medals! Yes, by all means. No American city or town should feel it is above honoring every soldier and sailor boy with a suitable medal. But let this business of getting their jobs back for them proceed with speed, and uninterrupted. There may be times when getting one's job back may have the same effect as taking copious quantities of the mystical "elixir of life."

WAS DISRAELI WRONG?

In James Morgan's well written story of "Abraham Lincoln, the Boy and the Man," in the chapter devoted to how the world received the news of Lincoln's assassination, this sentence occurs:

"Benjamin Disraeli in his speech on Lincoln in the British House of Commons, declared that 'assassination never has changed the history of the world.'"

This speech was delivered in the spring of 1865. It is now 54 years ago that Disraeli made this statement which, reflecting on a past condition, was tinged with a prophecy of what he believed would be a condition obtaining in the future.

Many times men do not give sufficient consideration to the vicious human traits of greed and desire for power. The character and traits of the German people were, even at that time, worthy of the study and analysis of Britain's great prime minister.

Within four years, the history of Europe has contradicted what Disraeli said he believed in 1865. June 28, 1914, the Archduke Ferdinand and the Duchess of Hohenberg were assassinated at Sarajevo, Bosnia, by a Serbian student. It was Germany's excuse to leap at the throat of Europe.

On the surface of things at least, this assassination is responsible for the map of Europe being changed. This assassination brought to Germany what may, in the future, develop into a fine republican form of government. Germany has been reborn as a republic. This assassination marked the entrance into the international arena of the United States as a recognized world power. The killing of two "small time" royal personages over in Serbia very materially hastened the proposal and acceptance of the league of nations idea.

Contrary to Disraeli, assassinations do count. The flash from the killer's gun in Sarajevo started a war that set the world on fire. This world-war was a crucible out of which mankind may emerge with a cleaner mind and cleaner intention, prepared to live more righteously as an individual and more peaceably as a nation.

BOOSTING WATER PRICE

After March 1 it will cost people here owing houses a higher rate for the water used. Apparently, it was an increase that had to come. The water department must have additional revenue to pay for its necessary extensions and current expenses. Where else can this additional revenue be obtained than exacting it from the people who own the houses where the water is used?

There is a possibility that a more efficient management of the water department in past years might have made conditions such today that this raise in the rates would not be necessary, but this too, is a debatable question.

There is a little grain of satisfaction contained in the argument advanced by Commissioner Morse that the rates should be increased. He says for a long time Lowell people have been paying the lowest water rates of any city of this size in the state. Perhaps we ought to have paid more for our water, although the water is not of particularly good quality. We'll pay more after March 1st. Water is something we have to have, even if Charlie Morse makes it come high.

In one day we read that Canada and Argentina were to grant monster credits to war ravaged European countries. It seemed a true and vivid exemplification of the new world lending substantial crutches to a very badly crippled old world.

MODERN SURGERY

The boy we were sorriest for in our youth was the son of the richest man in town.

In spirit, physique and mental equipment he was a born leader. But he had a palsied arm.

A twisted shadow of an arm, with a slender, twisted, helpless hand at the end of it.

And as a boy he stood on the side lines and watched.

In college his only honors came in the classroom.

He made good as a lawyer in later years, but he had a handicap that doubtless wrung his mental withers every time he addressed a new jury.

In after years we heard that his arm was dislocated in childhood. The fault was unsuspected and when discovered, surgery of those days was helpless.

The other day, a young hopeful of our acquaintance, aged two and a half, dived head first off a bed.

When he was picked up nothing appeared wrong, but later we noticed that he refused to use one arm.

After two days he was taken to a doctor, who could discover nothing wrong.

But, not content, the doctor used the X-ray and there was disclosed a fracture of the upper arm; a fracture that had not separated. What doctors call a green limb fracture.

Splints for a few weeks and a good straight arm. But without the X-ray a fine chance for another twisted member to haunt a soul as boy and man through life.

Modern surgery, with its exactness, its definite discovery of hidden hurts, its replacements and removals and regenerations, is taking a lot of the old bad twists out of life.

And that surgery that makes a specially of making twisted children straight, and replacing crutches with sound legs of adequate length, and getting the spinal column to run in the curve of beauty its Maker intended: that surgery is truly heavenly, for in heaven, we take it, there are neither crooked bodies nor distorted souls.

We expect shortly that the book-makers may announce they will receive bets and offer terms on the sporting proposition of who is nearest right in regard to when the 26th will start home, Gen. Pershing, Gen. March or Congressman Fuller being offered as choices.

You have probably heard of dinners so well cooked and of such fine quality of food that people who knew about them told you they were fine enough to "put you to sleep." Just by way of a contrast in things, the campaigners for the big fund of the Boston Y.W.C.A., finding the campaign lagging in total results, announced they would hold a "wake up luncheon."

Who says cats are no good and show no affection besides consuming food that ought to be fed to hens or a pig? Let such people read the news from the Hub that recently, when a cat show was held for the benefit of the American fund for the French wounded, the net profit was $700, and reflect accordingly!

The Maine legislature is apparently seriously considering enacting a law preventing the consumption of cigars in that big state. We use the word "consumption" in this instance, instead of "smoking," because of the rapidity with which cigar smokers use up a package. It is a far cry from Maine to Kansas, where the cigar for some time has not legally been sold, but not so far a cry but that the straight-mouthed and determined State of Mainers may send the cigar packing along with booze.

If President Wilson wants to win the hearts of the real Bostonians, upon his arrival at the Hub, in the morning he will petition for a plate of codfish cakes or codfish hash, and at noon or the evening meal he will request a plate of—

If the German concept Herr Erzberger's publicly expressed belief that he has confidence Marshal Foch's given word will be kept, it will be a portent that the nation progresses in its first lessons of learning that scraps of paper and verbally given pledges many times go closely associated with a nation's honor and a sacred obligation to be kept inviolate.

Judging from the testimony of Col. Hurban given before the senate investigating committee, in regard to Lenin, if Lenin ever makes head, there is going to be some special red fire set off and hot drinks passed around in honor of the new arrival. The colonel says, in describing Lenin, "He is the incarnation of satanism, is an expert liar and I don't think he believes what he himself says."

Soldier's Illness Puzzles Physicians—Lawton Removed to Camp Devens Hospital

BOSTON, Feb. 20.—The case of Edmund M. Lawton of Marlboro, who was taken ill at his home Tuesday while on a furlough from Camp Merritt, N. J., is attracting general attention among the army doctors. Lieut. Wilson, who went from northeastern department headquarters yesterday to attend him, reported that portions of Lawton's skin has turned blue and he is agitated as to the exact cause.

Lawton was gassed and wounded overseas, his papers show, and had not been discharged from treatment at Camp Merritt. He was taken to the Camp Devens hospital, as the nearest to his home, and special attention is being given his case.

Had Throat and Stomach Trouble For Fifteen Years

Mr. Bates Tells How He Finally Got Rid of It—Says He's Cured

"I had throat and stomach trouble for 15 years. A dozen doctors gave me no relief. Finally they sent me to Colorado. I stayed there three months without benefit and came home coughing worse than ever. Then I heard of Mils Emulsion and commenced taking it. Before I had taken half a bottle, I found it was doing me more good than all the medicine I had ever taken. I continued its use until it cured me sound and well. I have gained 15 pounds, don't cough any more and can eat anything. Thank God I heard of Mils Emulsion."—John Bates, 179 S. West St., Cambridge, Ill.

Sufferers from indigestion, bloating, dizziness, bad cough and all other variations of stomach trouble should try Mils Emulsion. It costs nothing to try—it is guaranteed. And it has quickly succeeded in thousands of severe cases.

Mils Emulsion is a pleasant, nutritive food and a corrective medicine. It restores healthy natural bowel action, doing away with all need of pills and physics. It promotes appetite and quickly puts the digestive organs in shape to assimilate food. Chronic stomach trouble and constipation are promptly relieved—usually in one day.

This is the only solid emulsion made and so palatable that it is eaten with a spoon like ice cream. A truly wonderful medicine for weak, sickly children. Give Candy Cascarets to a Bilious, Constipated Child

"Mother gives me a candy Cascaret when I am cross, sick and won't pky."

TO MOTHERS! Each ten cent box of Cascarets, candy cathartic, contains full directions for dose for children aged one year old and upwards. Nothing else "works" the nasty bile, sour fermentations and constipation poison from the tender little bowels so gently, yet so thoroughly. Even cross, feverish, bilious children gladly take Cascarets without being coaxed. Cascarets taste just like candy. Cascarets never gripe the little bowels, never sicken, never injure, but above all, they never disappoint the worried mother.

LAW HAS NO TEETH IN IT

Interesting Assertion by Member of Gas and Electric Light Commission

Special to The Sun.

STATE HOUSE, Boston, Feb. 20.—"The law regulating the business of gas and electric light companies has no teeth in it and until this condition can be remedied large dividends will continue to be distributed and prices to the consumer advance in proportion."

This assertion was made yesterday by Commissioner Levenberg of the board of gas and electric light commissioners in arguing before a legislative committee that his board should be granted authority to see to it that the public utility companies do not "dip" in to their surplus accounts to pay dividends of unusual amounts.

Mr. Levenberg charged that this practice is common among a certain number of companies. He said that it is not unusual for his board to receive an application for authority to put into effect an increase in rates on the ground that the company has found it necessary to expend large amounts of money in making improvements. He told the committee that funds for this purpose should come from the surplus accounts but being "dispensed in dividends" were not on hand when needed for the purpose for which they were intended.

As an illustration of the methods employed, he told of one company paying dividends ranging between 40 and 60 per cent over a period of five years, during which time it had eaten into its surplus account to the extent of 25 per cent.

"Instead of adding to this account from the profits it was making, it deliberately reduced them for the purpose of adding to the rate of dividend paid the stockholders, despite the fact that the rate in any case would have been on a juicy scale."

He urged that the board be given authority to lay down and enforce such general or specific requirements as to the disposition of surplus funds and take steps toward the proper handling of depreciation problems as might be deemed necessary.

The petition was taken under advisement. HOYT.

EMPLOYEES OF BAY STATE PUBLIC EMPLOYEES

Special to The Sun.

STATE HOUSE, Boston, February 20.—That employees of the Bay State Street Railway company are public employees, because of the control of the company now exercised by the board of public trustees, is the interesting contention raised yesterday by certain members of the legislature and by a prominent state official who is also a lawyer.

If the contention is sustained it will probably have the result of preventing

Break a Cold In Few Hours

First dose of "Pape's Cold Compound" relieves the cold and gripe misery—Don't stay stuffed up!

Relief comes instantly. A dose taken every two hours until these doses are taken will end gripe misery and break up a severe cold either in the head, chest, body or limbs. It promptly opens clogged-up nostrils and air passages in the head, stops nasty discharge or nose running, relieves sick headache, dizziness, feverishness, sore throat, sneezing, and meadow larks along the coast. If storms and intense cold should come now the wild fowl might retrace their course, but the small birds would face a catastrophe. Crows are back in localities in New England and Canada from which they have long been absent. Pine grosbeaks have left many points in southern New England, but are so numerous still in Vermont and New Hampshire that cherry growers are complaining of the destruction of fruit buds. Peace trees have been reported blooming in the Connecticut valley. Sap running, buds swelling, catkins developing, early frogs croaking and birds singing and moving north all indicate the early opening of the spring season.

adjudication by the national war labor board in case the employees and the company should find themselves at any time in the future unable to agree in the matter of wages.

If these men are public employees it probably follows that the legislature alone would have the right to increase their wages, a decision to this effect having been reached in two cases last year. HOYT.

WILD GEESE ARE MOVING NORTH

Flocks of wild geese are reported moving northward, and from observations on bird migration received by E. H. Forbush, state ornithologist, an unusually early spring is predicted.

In New Jersey robins, blackbirds and bluebirds are moving two to four weeks in advance of the usual time, and they seem to have increased in southern New England within the last two weeks. There has been a steady accession to the numbers of starlings.

WOMAN SPEAKS IN GERMAN ASSEMBLY

WEIMAR, Wednesday, Feb. 19. (By the Associated Press.)—The German national assembly today heard a speech by a woman member, Frau Maria Juchacz, a social democratic delegate from Berlin. She made a logical address on a constructive political program and surprised the house by a violent attack on Count von Posadowsky-Welner, and other conservative delegates.

She gained sympathy at the start by reversing the customary salutation to "Gentlemen and Ladies." Several times she was applauded, but she aroused the conservatives toward the end and President Fehrenbach had to ring for order repeatedly. She praised the efforts of the government to rule Germany and said that the women were grateful for what had been done for them.

She aroused the conservatives when she answered the question which Count von Posadowsky-Welner asked several days ago: "What is to become of Junkers?"

Turning to the count she repeated his question and answered it by saying: "All the world knows."

This afternoon about 15 candidates were looked after. Mr. Dillingham will come to this city tomorrow for the purpose of receiving first naturalization papers.

A GREAT CHANGE
ENTERS INTO LIFE
OF STOREKEEPER

A certain unassuming gentleman in this city who happens to be a prominent merchant and who up to a few weeks ago had become a recluse because of his physical condition tells this remarkable and most interesting tale:

"For a number of years," he said, "I have been so closely confined to my business working zealously to make my store representative in every respect that wear and tear finally got me, my face became drawn and haggard and my disposition seemed to urge people to evade me. It was then that I began to despise my own company."

My bookkeeper one day suggested that I needed a rest and that my nerves required attention. She told me that her father had taken Phosphated Iron when in my condition. "Look at him now," she said, "He works ten hours a day and is the happiest man in the world."

All this happened less than a month ago. I followed the advice and look at me now. Back in the harness with a smile all the while. I am feeling more fit than ever. When I see a tired looking face the name of Phosphated Iron immediately comes in my mind. I am convinced that it is converting many a worn out body to a life force in thought, ambition and enthusiasm."

Special Notice: To insure doctors and their patients getting the Genuine Phosphated Iron we have put in capsules, each one containing a full dose, so that you can get your pills or tablets.

ST. MICHAEL'S PARISH ANNUAL REUNION

Parishioners of St. Michael's parish, old and young, held away in Associate hall yesterday afternoon and evening upon the occasion of the annual parish reunion of the Centralville church. Not only was the parish itself completely represented, but so excellently was the program of entertainment that it drew friends from all parts of the city.

In the afternoon the hall was given over to the youngsters and in the evening the adults were in the limelight. Both times brought capacity audiences and the social was a success from the word "go." Rev. John J. Shaw, the pastor, and the other priests of the parish as well as clergy from other parts of the city were on hand to take part in the happy occasion.

In the afternoon a specially arranged program for the "kiddies" was carried out and included games and sports of all descriptions. A number of older people were in charge and they enjoyed the affair equally as much as the young people. The hall was tastefully decorated with greenery, bunting and cut flowers and streamers of incandescents added materially to the brilliancy of the general effect.

Surrounding the center of the hall were various tables and booths from which one could buy anything from a plain cushion to ice cream. The booths were in charge of the various parish societies.

The evening program was in the capable hands of the Knights of Columbus Glee club who staged their recent success, "A Night in a K. of C. Hut." Manager B. F. Pickett of B. F. Keith's theatre also provided several acts from this week's bill at that theatre. Following the entertainment, general dancing was enjoyed until well into the morning.

The K. of C. entertainers were in charge of William F. Thornton, music-

FOUR MASS MEETINGS

Lawrence Strike Secretary Covered Considerable Ground Here Last Evening

Imo Kaplan, secretary of the Lawrence strike, was the principal speaker at four meetings of mill operatives, which were held in this city last night. Two of the meetings drew fair sized audiences but the other two met with slim attendance. It is said that the purpose of these meetings is to form an organization among the textile workers of this city in opposition to the Lowell Textile council and the United Textile Workers of America.

Mr. Kaplan was accompanied on his flying trip through the city by Lithuanian, Polish, Greek and Assyrian interpreters, whose duty it was to translate in their respective languages the remarks of the speaker. The first place visited was the hall at 22 Middle street, where a meeting of French-speaking operatives was scheduled to be held. Upon his arrival at the hall Mr. Kaplan found four men and one woman in attendance. The small audience, however, did not prevent him from delivering his address. Later he repaired to the basement of the Greek Orthodox church in Jefferson street, where he was received by a couple of hundred Greek operatives. From there the speaker went to Grafton hall, where about 25 Portuguese men and women greeted him. His last speech was delivered at the Polish club in Coburn street and the attendance there was fairly large. The Lawrence visitor traveled in an automobile.

In every instance Mr. Kaplan's address was brief and his stay in the hall was of short duration. His mission seemed to be one of organization rather than to arouse strike enthusiasm. It was stated at one of the meetings that an effort would be made to hold a mass meeting on the common Sunday afternoon and several committees were appointed to take care of the arrangements among the several nationalities employed in the local mills.

A WISE PRECAUTION

Commissioner Morse of the fire department, has asked City Engineer Stephen Kearney for a blue print of the Central fire station in Palmer street and also of the fire alarm system of the city, showing where the various wires are located so that in case anything should happen to the Palmer street house, there would be something on hand whereby one could ascertain the location of the various conduits that go to make up the alarm system.

Henry C. Fernald, an electrician in the fire department, is said to be the only man in the city who knows the location of the various wires and Mr. Morse argues that he is just as mortal as anybody. In the event of his death, there would be some difficulty in locating wires.

INDEFINITELY SUSPENDED

Charles J. Morse of the fire and water departments has gotten rid of two more employees, one from each of the departments through the process of indefinite suspension.

William F. Joyce, a foreman in the water department, who has been drawing $2.10 per day as a foreman, was notified late yesterday afternoon that he had been indefinitely suspended. According to Mr. Morse, Joyce has been reporting for work each day, but that there has not been anything for him to do.

Robert Rutherford, a lineman in the fire department, has also been indefinitely suspended by Commissioner Morse as the latter believes there is no present need of his services. He has been getting $2.50 per week.

Reports—Allies Capable of Taking Care of Reds

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20.—Col. Geo. F. Stewart, commanding the American troops in northern Russia, called the war department today that "allied reports of the condition of troops in northern Russia" were not warranted by the facts.

The health of the entire command is excellent, the report says, the sick and wounded are well cared for, and "the allied command is capable of taking care of itself against the whole Bolshevik army."

METHODIST SOCIAL UNION

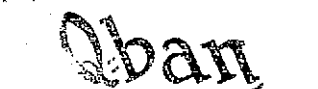

Rev. Arney to Back D.D. of Madison addressed the Lowell Methodist Social Union last night at its meeting at the Madison street church, on the topic "Present World Conditions and the Church." Dr. Hall's address was a forcible appeal to the churchmen and the church to take part toward meeting the world's needs in the great era of reconstruction.

The union was most heartily entertained by Rev. N. W. Matthews and his people, and in a special paper was served prior to the meeting. The attendance was large and included representatives from every Methodist church in the city. The president of the Madison M. U., Washington, presided and introduced Dr. Hall.

SAYS HUNS STILL THINK

THEY WERE RIGHT

BRUSSELS, Feb. 19. (British Wireless Service.)—Maximilian Harden, editor of Die Zukunft of Berlin, in an interview in Le Soir of Brussels declares that the German people were misled as to the cause of the war. They believed at the outbreak that Germany was in the right and even believe now that right was on their side.

Emperor Wilhelm, Harden declared, was drawn into the war against his own wishes, but once hostilities began it was he who kept alive national hatred and was responsible for the methods of warfare for which the world would never forgive Germany.

"Our people," said Harden, "did not know and do not know, they logically believed that right was on their side. If they had not they would not have fought and suffered as they did. They believed in a coalition against Germany. They did not understand that Great Britain, France and Russia had no other object than to protect themselves against the adverse designs of the Kaiser."

"They did not understand that the violation of Belgium was a crime which turned the enlightened minorities against Germany. They are still certain that if Germany had not invaded Belgium, Britain and France were ready to do so. Personally, I do not think France ever thought of such a thing, and if she had Great Britain would not have permitted it."

"But it was an old idea of the Kaiser. In one of his outbursts he once said to Leopold II: 'If there is a war I shall go through Belgium. If she resists, Belgium will not exist any longer.'"

"It is the 30 years of reign of Wilhelm II. which carried responsibility for the war. It is the teaching which has poisoned youth. It is the spirit of militarism that has been soaked into the people."

"Kaiser Wilhelm was drawn into it himself, perhaps against his own sentiments. He was not warlike; he was not even courageous, and I know that he did struggle to conquer his personal feelings before he could be brought to sign the mobilization decree."

"But once war was declared it was he who kept alive the national hatred. It was he who used methods of war for which the world will never pardon him. Believe me, it causes me terrible pain to have to admit this."

When the interviewer pointed out to Harden that no protests against Germany's methods ever were raised in Germany, Harden declared that even now not only the actors in the tragedy hesitate to admit Germany's guilt but that persons who have lost a brother or husband in the war desire to cling to the belief that they have suffered their share of bereavement in a good cause; they think it would take away from the dignity of their grief if they recognized that the cause for which their country fought was criminal.

AMERICANS IN RUSSIA GIVEN WAR CROSSES

ARCHANGEL, Tuesday, Feb. 18 (By the Associated Press).—Thirty officers and men of the American forces in northern Russia today were given French war crosses for gallant service under French command on the Volga railway front during the brisk offensive against the Bolsheviks in September, October and November. The crosses were bestowed by the French commander in the presence of Maj. Gen. Edmund Ironside and Col. Geo. B. Stewart, commanding the Americans in northern Russia. All comrades of the men honored were present, clad in Arctic costume, and the ceremony was below zero.

Most of the heroes are from Michigan.

MOREY MAKING GOOD AS

PHYSICAL DIRECTOR

Dave Morey, former Dartmouth baseball and football man, and later athlete at Lowell Textile, is making good as director of physical education at Malden high school, his own home town. He has evolved a brand new exercise for the use of his pupils, boxing, which has been tried but seldom in New England public schools. To see a class of boys all in uniform, going through the motions of shadow boxing, and to see pairs of them donning the gloves and giving a first class exhibition of boxing, is quite a departure from the old-time idea of school education.

Bolsheviks Behind Plot

ister, who called upon him late in the evening for the third time after the shooting.

The premier raised the question whether the supreme council should sit this afternoon as had been arranged and expressed the wish that the decision be left to the delegates of the other great powers. Consequently Paul Datsis, the general secretary of the peace conference, was instructed to call upon the American, British, Italian and Japanese delegations and set their views. It was considered probable early today that the delegates would suggest waiting for a few days, possibly until the first of next week, before resuming work.

Repents "It Is Nothing"

Personally, M. Clemenceau is impatient to resume his place at the head of the conference. As he refers to the subject in his conversation with those around him, he gives the impression of being able to resume the sittings again in four or five days, for he keeps repeating "It is nothing."

Spends Day in Armchair

The premier yesterday went for Sister Therese, the nun who nursed him when he was operated upon a few years ago, and she is now attending him. He spent the day yesterday in his arm chair, but asked that his favorite old grandfather's chair be brought from his country house at Bernouville.

The premier's mind never was clearer nor his thought more rapid. He discusses his wound and his symptoms technically, just as if they were those of another person.

"Dodged Bigger Ones," Says "Tiger"

PARIS, Feb. 20.—Marshal Foch arrived at the premier's residence about 10 o'clock and took a seat in an adjoining room to await developments. The marshal had a few words with the premier and reported M. Clemenceau as saying:

"I have dodged bigger ones than that at the front."

"Handling New War"

PARIS, Feb. 20.—(By the Associated Press).—Cottin, Premier Clemenceau's assistant, stated as his reason for the attack that he planned to kill the premier because M. Clemenceau was the enemy of humanity and was preparing for another war.

Cottin Great Reader of Novels

PARIS, Feb. 20.—The father and the mother of Emile Cottin, who shot Premier Clemenceau, are simple working people. They live in Rue Convention, the father working in a factory in Troy les Bains. A brother, aged 17, also works in a factory there. A second brother is five and one half years old.

Neighbors of the family describe Emile Cottin as being addicted to neither smoking nor drinking, but say he was a great reader of novels and books on anatomy and sociology. His father tried to lead him to combat the anarchistic ideas of his son, but the latter sided with him as being old fashioned. When he heard the news of the attempted assassination, the father was at work, but felt a premonition, it is said, that the criminal was his son.

Emile Cottin has been under treatment for an infection of the heart and a disease of the lungs. He was taken to Saint Joseph's last night.

X-Ray Examination

It was planned to make an X-ray examination of Premier Clemenceau's wounds today. The condition was improving, but he was fatigued. Drs. Gasser, Tuffere, Landry and Paul were in attendance, but despite that Clemenceau's appeal for an immediate X-ray examination they ordered rest. He told them he wanted the work done as soon as possible so that he could get back to work in a few days.

Expressions of Sympathy

Expressions of sympathy reached the premier from all quarters. The premier and senate discussed the shooting and were horrified and indignant that such an occurrence could take place. King George, the British house of commons and various heads of nations sent messages of sympathy, while M. Clemenceau's

HERRON REACHES PARIS

Confers With White, His

Colleague, on Proposed

Conference With Russians

PARIS, Wednesday, Feb. 19.—George D. Herron has arrived in Paris from Geneva and is in consultation with William Allen White, his American colleague, in the proposed conference with Russian territorial leaders at Pripinski island. There is as yet no definite announcement concerning plans for the meeting, but indications are that either that program or some other form of conference with the various Russian governments, either individually or collectively, will be arranged by the contents powers.

President Technikovsky of the Archangel government, M. Toteff, food commissioner under Kerensky, and Charles H. Crane, of Massachusetts, conferred with Secretary Lansing and other members of the American peace delegation today concerning Russian affairs.

Boris Savitoff, minister of war in the Kerensky cabinet, is working on a plan looking to the federation of the various governments encircling the Bolshevik territory. He hopes to enlist 50,000,000 people in a unified democratic movement.

CANADIAN TROOPS RETURN

HALIFAX, N. S., Feb. 20.—The transport Royal George from Liverpool today embarked 61 officers, 500 men and 1310 other ranks of the Canadian expeditionary force.

Home was crowded with distinguished visitors who called to inquire as to his injuries and express their sympathy.

"Tiger's" Chauffeur Decorated

The premier asked Major General Mordax, his military aide, to decorate Chauffeur Decaudin. The ceremony took place in the premier's bedroom. Decaudin was driving the car when the premier was fired upon. "It was expected that Congress, another chauffeur, would be decorated."

All Praise Clemenceau

PARIS, Feb. 20.—Premier Clemenceau not so very long ago used to say that he did not believe he had a real friend in France. If he still cherished that belief after the victory over the Germans, it would seem that he can no longer do so, for this morning's Paris newspapers are a unit in expressing sympathy and praise.

"Tiger's" Own Story of Attack

PARIS, Feb. 20.—Premier Clemenceau's own story of the attack upon him as he told it to callers is given in the Matin today as follows:

"Yesterday when I was passing that spot at the corner of the Boulevard Desseign, I remarked a strange silhouette figure upon the pavement showing some one examining me attentively. The silhouette was that of a rather evil-looking man. I said to myself: 'Hello, that fellow is up to no good.' This morning at the same spot, I perceived the same silhouette and immediately thought 'Why, that's my friend of yesterday.'"

"I hadn't time to continue the reflection, for the individual's arm was raised, revolver in hand, and he fired at the door of the automobile and hit the window. I didn't reflect that there were perhaps other bullets in the revolver, and as soon as the first shot was fired, I leaped forward to see. Other shots followed rapidly, one after another, and I felt a sharp pain low down the back of my neck. The pain was so intense that I could not help crying out. I realized perfectly that I had been hit."

spector general of the A.E.F. had all personally inspected the camp during the last month.

Conditions at the camp have been described as terrible in published reports and by witnesses before congressional committees.

Tables of hospital rates were included in Pershing's report. The daily admissions rate per thousand men for troops in Brest and vicinity for the first 15 days of February was 1.15. The similar figure for November was 2.11, for December 4.2 and for January 1.53.

"The sick rate is unusually low," General Pershing said, "and is a direct measure of the sanitary situation at the place." Corresponding rates for the whole American Expeditionary Forces not counting men wounded in action is as follows:

For November, 3.9; December, 2.11; January, 2.04.

The daily average death rate per 100,000 men for troops at Brest and vicinity is shown as follows:

November, 5.13; December, 2.62; January, 5.15; February to date, 2.62.

"More than 955,000 men entered France via Brest," the cable states, "and over 163,000 left Brest. Total deaths among all these transients and among the permanent garrisons from November 12, 1917, to February 7, 1919, were 1241. Deaths on incoming loads or by the time patients reached hospitals at Brest 219 of these 1817 burials occurred in September, October and November last, when influenza and pneumonia cases were arriving on transports from the United States and were in no way due to any health conditions existing at Brest."

Itched Till Almost Crazy

"For years my hands were almost raw. They itched so bad I was almost crazy. Suffered day and night. Used all kinds of medicine and got no relief. Lost all hopes of ever being cured until I got a trial bottle of D. D. D. Results were so great I got a large bottle. Can sleep now and will always praise D. D. D."

THE EUROPEAN CORN

BORDER

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20.—Extension of the quarantine against the European corn border to include the entire states of New York and Massachusetts, with interstate shipments of corn and practically all green vegetables from those states prohibited, is believed by the department of agriculture to be necessary to combat further spread of the insect. The department announced it would conduct hearings in Washington February 25 on an extension of the quarantine which now applies to only a limited area of Massachusetts.

The lay membership was represented by distinguished business men and government officials.

Extreme Simplicity

Extreme simplicity marked the celebration which began with pontifical high mass in the Church of the Franciscan Monastery at Catholic university. Cardinal Gibbons being the celebrant, assisted by the Very Rev. E. R. Ryder of Baltimore, assistant priest, Monsignor Thomas S. Lee and Monsignor James F. Machin of Washington, deacons of honor: Monsignor James F. Holden, Baltimore, deacon, and the Very Rev. J. B. Creighton, S.J., sub-deacon. After the services the visitors formed in procession and marched to the refectory where dinner was served.

Lowell Bishop Attends

Archbishop Cerretti, speaking for the pope, Cardinal O'Connell for the hierarchy in the United States and Cardinal Beign for the Canadian clergy, praised the work and character of Cardinal Gibbons, Archbishop of Boston, St. Louis responded to the toast "Our Country." Cardinal Gibbons replied briefly, much touched by the tributes.

Prelates in attendance included the following from New England: Cardinal O'Connell, Boston; Bishop Feehan of Fall River; Bishop Beaven of Springfield; Bishop Walsh of Portland; Bishop Da Silva, Lowell, and Bishop Guertin of Manchester.

formed the theme of the reply of Cardinal Gibbons today, to addresses of congratulation at his golden episcopal jubilee. The venerable prelate was in a felicitous mood, despite emotion at the personal tributes and the fatigue of the exercises.

Tribute to Archbishop Ireland

During his speech, he paid a tender tribute to the late Archbishop Ireland of St. Paul, "the patriot whom his fellow citizens loved to honor."

Thanking Archbishop Cerretti, representative of the pope, Archbishop Bonzano, the papal nuncio in the United States, and other dignitaries for their presence, the cardinal recalled that when the jubilee was cancelled four months ago, because of the influenza epidemic, the pope inquired to what date it had been deferred. Cardinal Gibbons replied that it was postponed indefinitely, but in spite of his answer, he said, "The Holy Father decided that it should take place."

"When a man like myself becomes an octogenarian," Cardinal Gibbons said, "he is disposed to be reminiscent and to praise times passed away—'laudatur temporis acti.' He has the temptation to embellish his narratives because his audience, who are his juniors, have no means of contradicting him. But I assure you that I have no disposition to yield to the temptation myself."

"At the close of the third plenary council, over which I had the honor to preside, I addressed the assembled prelates, and referring to the words which St. Paul wrote to Timothy, I thanked them because they did not despise my youth. If your predecessors in the episcopate were so patient and forbearing to me in my youthful experience, you have always been kind and considerate to me in my declining years."

Sole Survivor of 1000 Bishops

"I am today the sole survivor of the nearly 1000 bishops who attended the vatican council and by a notable circumstance, the oldest prelate at the time of the council was a bishop from South America."

"What is still more noteworthy, I am actually the only survivor of the 80 prelates who attended the third plenary council of 1851."

"The last to descend below the horizon of the tomb was the venerable patriarch of the west, the great apostle of temperance, the patriot, whom his fellow citizens loved to honor without distinction of race or religion, the lion of the fold of Judah. I refer to John Ireland, archbishop of St. Paul."

"I thank God that we are assembled today when the war is over and the blessed sun of peace has dawned upon us."

"During that tremendous conflict, there was one majestic figure that towered over all others. I refer to our Holy Father, Benedict XV. I behold now in imagination, standing like Moses on the mountain with uplifted

HELP those who CANNOT help themselves. Lowell people you have the means! Have you the heart? It is not our business to help those who CAN help themselves BUT IT IS OUR JOB to help people into the position where they can help themselves.

Our duty does not end in our home, in our city, in our own state, nor in our own country, but it extends as far as needed.

Of all the crying causes of helplessness, that of the PEOPLES IN THE NEAR EAST—owing to the ferocity and cruelty of the Turks—is the worst, and today after generations of misrule the situation and condition of the inhabitants, WHOM WE ARE ASKED TO SUCCOR, is the most difficult and distressing as a result of the war. Others, where able, are helping, but it is too big a job for them and WE ARE NEEDED. THE SUFFERERS ARE ACTUALLY PERISHING.

President Wilson, Theodore Roosevelt, Governor Coolidge, Herbert Hoover, Cardinal O'Connell, Cardinal Gibbons, our own Mayor Perry D. Thompson and many more have satisfied themselves of the need and have all appealed to us to help these people, who from no fault of their own are unable to help themselves. The U. S. S. Leviathan, the largest ship afloat, has gone over with provisions and with hundreds of good Americans, and we must do our part in seeing that they have the supplies and are not left out there without the things they need to do the work.

We must help those who are helping those who cannot help themselves, and we must help those who are out to raise the $30,000 asked of Lowell.

We may fall down this time, but don't let it be your fault. Public opinion says in unmistakable terms that we must help those who cannot help themselves, no matter where they are; provided our help is needed and we are able. It is needed for Relief in the Near East and we can and must help.

WILL TAKE STRIKE VOTE

Telephone Operators Discussed Higher Wage Scale at Boston Meeting

On Wednesday next, Feb. 26, each local union of the New England Telephone operators' union will take a vote on whether or not to go out on strike for a higher wage scale. This was decided upon at an all-day session of representatives of New England districts held yesterday at the Quincy house, Boston. The district which includes Lowell was represented by Miss Helen Moran, president of the Lowell chapter. This strike vote will be taken by men and women employees alike.

The new wage scale desired by the telephone operators was presented to Mr. Burleson some time ago and has received no consideration, the operators say. It calls for a minimum wage of $22 weekly, which may be obtained at the end of four years, and for a minimum wage for beginners of $10 a week. At present operators work for seven years to obtain a maximum of $16.

On Friday, Feb. 23, district representatives will again meet at the Quincy house to report the results of the votes taken in individual chapters. Miss Julia O'Connor, international president, leaves Boston today for Springfield, Ill., to attend an executive board meeting which is called for the purpose of discussing the nation-wide situation.

Capt. Atkinson, Sergt. Bigelow, Inspector Walsh and Patrolman Regan arrested five young men of this city last night on charges of breaking and entering camps in Chelmsford and Tyngham and leaving therefrom. The prisoners and their ages are as follows: Alfred G. Daniels, 18 years; Joseph Lamothe, 17; Augustus Marion, 18; Felix Garneau, 17; Joseph Hachez, 17; Nelson Thompson, 18. Two others, Adolphe Rochette and Louis Thibault were also apprehended by the same officers for the larceny of a handbag from Mrs. Catherine Griffin, which it is claimed occurred last Saturday evening in Moody street near the city hall garage, when the woman's bag was snatched from her hand by the two young men, who at that time made their escape.

The police claim that Daniels admits breaking into two camps in Tyngham about a month ago, while Garneau admits having broken a plate glass window in the store of Dennis Koster at the corner of Lilley avenue and Hildreth street last Tuesday night and having stolen cigars and cigarettes.

Bolsheviki Said to Be Behind
Plot to Kill Clemenceau

PARIS, Feb. 20.—Was the attempt upon Premier Clemenceau's life of Bolshevik origin? is a question being insistently asked here.

The Matin today recalls that a few days ago a Geneva newspaper announced that the Bolsheviks in Lausanne, Switzerland, were plotting against his life and that two Bolsheviks had crossed the frontier to carry out the plan.

The Paris police, says the Petit Parisien, were warned some time ago that a plot was brewing against the premier's life. It states that the wife of a member of the French consular service formerly stationed in Russia, was in the Russian library in the Avenue Godeaux a fortnight ago, and overheard a discussion which made her sure that an attempt against the premier was in preparation. This library is one frequented by Maximalists. The woman informed her husband of what she had heard, and he notified the police, who assured him that the persons in question would be closely watched.

TROOPSHIPS ARE HELD BY STORM

NEW YORK, Feb. 20.—Eight thousand homeward bound American troops sent here this week have been delayed by Atlantic storms which have partially disabled two vessels and retarded the passage of three others, the naval communication office announces.

The ship in most serious trouble is the Emergency Fleet corporation freighter Polar Bear, whose distress signals in mid-ocean were answered by the transport President Grant. The latter may have to tow the cargo carrier into Bermuda, and this would postpone four or five days the embarkation of the President Grant's 4781 soldiers.

The Polar Bear, 1295 gross tons, is a fabricated steel vessel, built last year at Baltimore. The vessel did not state the nature of her disability. She was returning from Bordeaux with four casual passengers and freight. The cruiser Kansas, bringing 1330 troops, was forced by excessive fuel consumption in heavy weather to put into Bermuda for coal, and the Henderson with 1277 sick and wounded on her passenger list, was reported overdue.

The Woonsocket returning from Bordeaux with 21 casuals aboard, sent a radio message that she had been delayed by loss of a propeller blade.

WILSON LANDS
MONDAY NOON

BOSTON, Feb. 20.—The steamship George Washington, bringing President Wilson and Mrs. Wilson from France, will reach Boston on Monday, according to an official message from the steamship received today by Rear Admiral Spencer S. Wood, commanding the first naval district. The message was relayed by the battleship New Mexico, flagship of the conveying fleet.

The New Mexico has been in direct wireless communication with the first naval district for the past 18 hours and yesterday sent word that the George Washington had received messages sent by Mayor Andrew J. Peters and others but could not reply because of atmospheric conditions.

The messages from the mayor were inquiries regarding the acceptability of the program for his visit. He was asked whether a night meeting at Mechanic's hall was agreeable, whether he wished to appear at a joint session of the legislature, whether he would be the guest of the reception committee at a luncheon and whether Mrs. Wilson would be the guest of the women of the city.

Applications for seats at Mechanic's hall, where President Wilson is expected to give his first word to the country on the proposed league of nations fairly flooded the mails and caused hundreds of persons to visit city hall today. Mayor Peters said the applications already in hand exceeded the 7000 person capacity of the hall.

Governor Coolidge announced today that he had invited the governors of the other New England states to come here Monday on the occasion of the arrival of President Wilson.

A later message from the George Washington said that the steamship would reach Boston about 1 p. m. Monday and would anchor in President roads in the lower harbor. The presidential party will be transferred to the coast guard cutter Ossipee on which they will be brought to Commonwealth pier.

Announcement was made that reservation of tickets for the meeting would be made for the governor, the legislature, the mayor and city council, the reception committee and a few other persons entitled to the privilege. Distribution of the remaining tickets will be by appointment to the several districts of Greater Boston.

To Sign War Revenue Bill

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20.—Among other documents Secretary Tamm will take with him when he leaves tomorrow night for Boston to meet the president will be the engrossed original of the six billion dollar war revenue bill. The president may sign the bill soon after he lands.

Troops Not to Disembark

The George Washington will then proceed to New York, where the returning troops will be disembarked. No troops will leave the steamer here. The message said that the president's convey was experiencing rough weather, but indicated that good progress was being made.

Rear Admiral Wood announced that six destroyers, the Sturgham, Paulding, Walker, Walworth, Drayton and Conyngham would be sent out from here to meet the George Washington and escort her to an anchorage.

Mayor Peters said that the tentative program would be unchanged, except that he probably would greet President Wilson on the Quinsig.

MAJ. GEN. TRAUB
MAKES DENIAL

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20.—Major General Peter H. Traub, who commanded the 14th Division in the battle of the Argonne, denied before the house subcommittee today the charges of Governor Allen of Kansas that men of the division Misconduct, and Kansas had been sacrificed by failure of artillery support.

"We were up against three crack battle divisions," said the general, "but we advanced 12 1/2 kilometers on a two or three kilometer front and held it in the three hours of the battle. We had taken what the French had been fighting for four years."

General Traub said the division's casualties in six days and nights of fighting were 300 killed and 1500 wounded.

"The Germans had been preparing for the defense for four years and they had everything conceivable," he said. "There was a ridge filled with craters some 20 feet deep and the high ground at each side and in the rear was filled with a great defensive system."

Reports of lack of equipment and supplies were declared unfounded. The general said the artillery support never failed when called for and that not half a dozen shells from the American artillery fell into its own lines. He added that sometimes there were plenty of American airplanes in this sector along the 22 mile battle front, and at other times there were not; that artillery horses were not unfit for their work, but that there was a shortage of 1500 in the full complement and that wounded could be removed only at night because of the German fire.

LUDENDORFF PROTESTS

AMSTERDAM, Feb. 20.—General Ludendorff, who has been credited with having been the driving force in the German military command, according to the Cologne Gazette, has sent two Prussian officers to Chancellor Scheidemann to demand an explanation or retraction of the remark said to have been made by Scheidemann that Ludendorff was "an adventurer."

Scheidemann refused to give any explanation. Ludendorff, it is added, then sent to the president of the national assembly, where the remark is said to have been made, a formal protest.

COUNCIL TRIMS CITY BUDGET

Department Estimates Must Be Slashed To Avoid $30 Tax Rate
Council Clipped Off $244,660 From Original Figures at Yesterday's Session

If the municipal council eventually votes in favor of giving to each department at city hall the amount of money that it has asked for in its 1919 estimates, as brought out in the budget discussed by the council late yesterday afternoon, the city's tax rate will jump about $6 per thousand, or from $22.80, the present rate, to $28.80.

However, it is hardly possible that the council will see fit to do this. Mayor Thompson, in conjunction with Commissioner James E. DeLoach of the finance department, has gone through every department estimate and recommended what in his opinion should be appropriated. If his recommendations are carried out to the letter, the 1920 tax rate will be increased about $1.50. This, however, does not make provision for the fact that the revenues of the assessors will be cut off this year to a considerable extent. A tax rate in the vicinity of $25 for 1920 does not seem wholly improbable, from indications evident at yesterday afternoon's first session of the council to consider the 1919 budget.

The session was one of the tinniest of its kind witnessed in years, according to those who have followed up municipal finances. It lasted an hour and a half and no definite action was taken on any department estimate. Mayor Thompson simply read the expenditures in each department last year, the amount asked for this year and the amount which he himself recommended. The total amount recommended for all departments is $2,725,790. The total amount which the departments themselves want is $3,131,258.53. The total revenue in sight for 1919 is $2,551,445. If Mayor Thompson's recommendations are carried out, the total 1919 appropriation will be $144,335 more than there is actual revenue available at present.

His Honor recommended some pretty steep cuts in some of the departments and his cut in the buildings department brought hearty protest from Commissioner Marchand. A cut of $22,000 was recommended by the mayor in this department's estimates. Last year the department's expenses amounted to $38,715.21. This year's estimate is $12,014.29. Mayor Thompson recommended that it be given only $7,000. Commissioner Marchand said that the schools and the houses were in "an awful condition." He didn't see how he could pull through. However, he was willing to bear his share of whatever slashing was considered necessary.

There was also a deep slash in the fire department estimate. This department wants $301,955.41 for 1919. In the opinion of the mayor, it can do business with only $251,000.

The school department estimates were not submitted until the last minute yesterday and were not taken up at the meeting. However, it was stated that if the school department gets what it wants, the city will have to spend $194,325 more than last year.

The session opened at 2:45 with all members of the council and City Auditor Charles D. Paige present.

Boosting Tax Rate

Mayor Thompson said that the total estimates as submitted by the various departments amounted to $3,131,258.53 and that if this money were voted it would mean sending the tax rate up to nearly $30 per thousand. It is self-evident, he said, that there would have to be wholesale slicing in all departments. He believed that the price of commodities would decrease in the coming year and that this fact should be taken into consideration. The added expense of increased wages in many of the departments which was felt for only six months of last year, would have to be met throughout 1919. He believed that the amount of loans during the year might well be a little beyond normal in order to provide work for those who need it.

Budget Taken Up

The budget was then taken up, page by page. The first was the mayor and commissioners' department. The total expenses last year, exclusive of the fixed charges, were $33,742.31. The estimate for 1919 had originally been placed at $59,500, but the mayor had asked it later to $75,775. For fixed charges in the department, he recommended $34,125. The expenses last year were $67,152.45.

The law department expenses last year were $495.65. This year, the mayor recommended $500, a decrease of $100 from the original estimate. The total police department expenses last year were $215,156.29. The 1919 estimate was reduced from $249,592.93 to $235,000. In addition to this, $2950 is estimated for the police wires department.

The health office expenses in 1918 were $37,664.65. The mayor expressed himself willing to get along with $30,000 this year, although his original estimate was $34,878.31.

The health yard cost the city $35,172.56 in 1918. The mayor would be satisfied with $102,000 this year, he said. His first estimate was $100,445.65.

The milk department expenses last year amounted to $266,685. This year $2200 is recommended.

The charity department spent $35,710.10 in 1918. Despite the fact that more people have applied for help in that department in the last two months than in any similar period for some time back, the mayor was willing to cut down his estimate from $51,512.80 to $35,000.

The city street hospital cost the city $100,000 last year. The sum of $102,000 is recommended for this year.

For the dependant mothers' department, $100,000 is asked. Last year $44,451.16 was spent.

The state and department expenses in 1918 were $421,145. This year $40,000 is wanted.

The auditor's department spent $20,000 last year. This year's estimate called for $20,000 but the mayor recommended that this figure be reduced to $17,500. At the request of Commissioner Donnelly, City Auditor Paige read a letter from the assessors recommending that a tax list be published this year as the last one was published in 1915 and there had been considerable demand for a new one. The expense of publishing 5000 copies would be $1800. The mayor said that that would have to be considered as an "extra." He believed that the assessors should be given all the co-operation possible and not handicapped in any way because it was upon them that the council had to depend for its revenue.

Commissioner Marchand thought that assessors should be appointed to go in to stores and assess the actual value of the property therein, instead of depending on the say-so of whoever happens to be in the stores.

The assessors spent $16,516.90 last year and the sum of $17,000 is recommended for this year.

The treasurer's department spent $10,778.65 in 1918. According to its estimate, it wants $17,300 for this year. Mayor Thompson recommended that it be given $17,000.

The purchasing agent's department spent $5517.73 last year. Its estimate of $10,142 for 1919 includes $1600 for a new automobile. The mayor recommended that the department be given only $7100.

It was recommended that the city clerk's department be given $10,700 this year. Last year it spent $10,759.74.

The elections and registrars' appropriation for 1919 was estimated at $20,550. Last year it spent $20,401.90. The mayor recommended that it be given $20,000.

The registrar of labor spent $335 last year. He asked for $550 this year and it was recommended by the mayor.

Streets and Highways
Commissioner Murphy asked for $236,000 for the streets and highways department. Last year $205,911 was spent. It was recommended that the department be given $180,000.

The lighting department cost $110,789.47 last year. This year $120,000 is recommended. The estimate asked for $129,100.

Street sprinkling cost $26,999.65 last year. Mayor Thompson recommended $27,000 for this year.

The sewer maintenance department spent $15,964.57 last year. It was recommended that it be given $17,000 for 1919, although its estimate was $23,100. Commissioner Morse said that the department had been short a team and three men for the past five years.

Recommendations for the engineering department called for $7500 plus receipts for this year. Last year's expenditures amounted to $11,354.55.

Fire Department
The fire department wants $301,955.41 for 1919, according to Commissioner Morse's estimate. This includes $35,200 for new apparatus. Last year the department spent $257,230.71. The mayor recommended that the department be given $251,000, a slashing of $6,950.

The next department taken up, the buildings department, "started something." Commissioner Marchand asked for $132,011.20. Last year was spent $58,718.21. Mayor Thompson recommended that the estimate be reduced to $70,000. Commissioner Marchand said that money was needed for the repair of schools and firehouses.

Mayor Thompson replied that loans could be obtained for such work and the men in the department paid out of those loans, thus decreasing the payroll expenses of the department as far as the appropriation was concerned.

Commissioner Marchand said that a number of salaries had been raised last year, but the mayor thought that this would be offset to some extent by the decrease in the price of commodities.

The city messenger's department expenses last year were $1505.69. The mayor recommended that $1500 be given this year.

The city hall department spent $23,517.17 in 1918. This year $24,000 was recommended.

The license commission spent $1622.74 last year. This year $4700 is recommended.

The rifle range cost $1290.10 in 1918. The 1919 estimate called for $1635, but the mayor thought this could be reduced to $1300.

The weigher's department spent $1005 last year. For 1919, $1010 is recommended. The comfort station cost $223.15 last year and $7500 is recommended for this year. The moth department expended $7502.27 last year and it is recommended that it get $7500 this year. The wire department spent $2368.82 last year and it is recommended for $2500 this year. The sealers' department spent $533.71 and $5000 is the figure recommended for this year.

Park Department
The park department estimate came in for a slashing, according to the mayor's recommendation. The total expenses of the department last year were $23,351.23. This year the estimate called for $23,618.73. The mayor recommended that this be reduced to $25,000.

The city library cost the city $18,917.69 last year. This year it is recommended that it be given $20,000. The sum of $26,000 is also asked for the isolation hospital.

This concluded all the department estimates with the exception of the school department. At 4:15 the council voted to adjourn until Thursday at 2:30 p. m.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION IN THE SCHOOLS
Dr. Carl L. Schrader, assistant to Dr. Sargent, physical director at Harvard university, spoke to a fairly large audience of teachers and others interested in body education in the schools last evening in High school hall on the topic, "Physical Education in the Schools." Dr. Schrader came here at the invitation of the school committee, which has just inaugurated a system of physical training in the local grammar schools at the suggestion of one of its members, General Gardner W. Pearson. His address proved most interesting and emphasized the need of legislation for compulsory physical education.

He was introduced by Supt. Hugh J. Molloy, who expressed the opinion that this country had not given sufficient attention to physical instruction and thought that there should be more interest in the work.

In opening, Dr. Schrader said that there was now a bill before the state legislature calling for physical instruction in the schools and he appealed for its support by educators.

He warned his listeners against faddists on the subject, people who had become interested only recently and who hadn't given the matter any depth of thought. He felt that closer watch should be kept on children in the schools and that the teacher should cooperate with the medical inspector and school nurse in detecting defects. Parents must also co-operate, he said, if the best results are to be obtained.

He recommended more gymnasia and swimming plunges in the schools and if these couldn't be had, basements and corridors should be used.

"I believe in competitive sports," he continued, "under leaders selected by the contestants. In many schools the question of teaching play has been neglected. There should be a play curriculum for the various grades and conditions. The organized recess is a good method to introduce for this purpose. It is full of possibilities. The first demand you must make is time. It requires a 20-minute period to accomplish results, and the child must not be deprived of the usual play period.

"The question of physical education does not belong exclusively to grammar and high schools, but it belongs to the community as a whole. For example, men in middle age have tripled their numbers in gymnasium since the war. Here is a time when breaking down occurs, and requires the protection of physical discipline." Gen. Pearson spoke briefly on the system which had already been installed in the local grammar schools and said that the basic idea was to depart from the old-time way of physical training that has become so monotonous. He referred to the possibility of another war and believed that Lowell should do her part to make her people fit.

PETITION TO RECALL ST. LOUIS MAYOR

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 20.—Petitions for the recall of Mayor Henry W. Kiel for alleged malfeasance in office have been filed with the board of election commissioners by representatives of the civic and citizens' reform leagues.

Under the municipal laws, 25,000 signatures are sufficient to invoke a recall election and if the petitions are found to be valid, the election will be held April 1.

The grievance against the mayor grew out of the agreement made with the United Railways company, recently, by which the company was granted a 20 year franchise to use the city's streets in return for payment of $2,500,000 over 10 years.

TAFT WOULDN'T TRUST FOES OF LEAGUE

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 20.—The gentlemen in the senate who are setting out to defeat this league of nations are these I would not trust over night," Ex-President William H. Taft said yesterday at a luncheon given in his honor by civic organizations as a part of the program of the Pacific coast congress for the League to Enforce Peace.

"They are citing the constitution as an argument against it," continued Mr. Taft.

"I reverse and perjury that great-sounding and it is a new story to me if the constitution prevents this people from playing their part in bringing peace and order and happiness to ourselves and the other peoples of the world."

"This is not a political question, God forbid, I am glad President Wilson went to Europe, because he went bearing a promise of a league of nations."

"The application at this time of the doctrine of avoiding entangling alliances is reactionary to the extent of delaying world peace 100 years. The question at this time is whether the whole great plan of the league of nations is to be defeated because we can't get a two-thirds majority of our senate for its ratification."

BILL TO REPEAL WAR-TIME PROHIBITION

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20.—Representative Gallivan of Massachusetts, yesterday introduced a bill to repeal the war-time prohibition rider on the food stimulation act. It was referred to the committee on agriculture.

Mr. Gallivan characterized the war prohibition measure as a "statutory lie" and a "statutory fraud."

"It was wicked in conception and wicked in its adoption," he continued.

"Congress does many strange and inconceivable things. This act was one of the strangest. The Anti-Saloon league lobbied chased themselves around the corridors of the capitol when this bill was up and their activities were often questionable."

"I'd like to see Pres. Wilson speak right out in the open on this important American question when he returns. I am strongly in favor of repeal and hope to see the question come up quickly."

A subcommittee of the house judiciary committee yesterday considered a bill for the enforcement of the war-time prohibition law. At the meeting Congressman Graham of Pennsylvania called attention to the unrest in the country and said the labor unions are greatly disturbed.

"This is radical and fanatical," said he.

Before Mr. Graham concluded his speech Acting Chairman Carlin announced that the committee was in executive session and further consideration of the matter was behind closed doors.

Representative Dyer, republican, Missouri, a member of the judiciary committee, expressed approval yesterday of the movement to repeal the war prohibition rider. "The proper thing is to repeal it," he said. "If we do not repeat it congress will soon enact a law putting up to the executive department the enforcement of it.

"Some question was raised in the judiciary committee that it was a wartime measure and that instead of regulations being made for its enforcement it ought to be repealed. The president did not sign it and it became law. It prohibition is wanted that way there is nothing for the judiciary committee to do except report a bill putting the enforcement of it up to the executive department—so that it will have to enforce it to the letter."

NEWS OF THE DAY IN THE POLICE COURT

John Dirst, 18; Cyril Davis, 17; John Roddy, 15, and William J. Calinan, 17, were called on continuance in police court this morning on a complaint charging them with fraudulently securing $122 from the Middlesex Trust Co. A plea of guilty was entered in each case, and Dirst, Roddy and Calinan were given suspended sentences to the Massachusetts reformatory, they agreeing to each make restitution of one-third of the above amount. Davis was given a direct sentence to the industrial school at Shirley.

Adelaide Rochette and Louis Thibault, two young men under 20, pleaded guilty to snatching a handbag from Miss Catherine Griffin last Saturday evening while she was going up Moody street towards her home. The bag contained $9 in money and some other small articles. A continuance was granted until tomorrow, bail being set at $500 each.

Felix Ganeau, another young man, severely out of his teens, pleaded guilty to breaking, entering and larceny of 350 cigars, valued at 10 cents each, and 10 packages of cigars, valued at 43 cents each, the property of Bennie Rostler. This occurred on the night of February 18. A continuance until tomorrow was granted in his case also, and he was ordered held in the sum of $300. Fred Cole, a boy of the same age as Ganeau, pleaded guilty to receiving stolen property which, in this case, consisted of the cigars which are alleged to have been stolen from Mr. Rostler, and was also continued until tomorrow, bail being set at $300.

"If you go in to work today we'll cut you to pieces," testified little Panglota Tavoularis when she took the stand and explained to the court how Louis and Mary Kollins had attempted to intimidate her while she was going to her work in the spinning room of the Appleton mills last Friday morning. Judge Enright found the woman guilty of intimidation and she was ordered to pay the costs of the trial and be more careful of her language in the future.

The man was found not guilty and discharged.

Charlie Johnson, who several months ago left the sunny clime of Virginia to take up his abode in South Lowell, was called on continuance on a complaint charging him with the larceny of a hen. The arresting officer told the court that last Sunday morning he met Charlie walking down the railroad tracks near the South Lowell station with a chicken under his arm, which appeared to have been killed recently. Charlie's explanation of his newly acquired possession was very poor, and on general principles the officer decided to accompany him to the station. Ralph McQuade, a young resident of the South Lowell district testified that he had found three dead chickens a short distance back from the point where Charlie was arrested. A point where Charlie was arrested. A point where Charlie was arrested.

Alvah Nichols was charged with assault and battery on Henry H. Jacobs. Mr. Jacobs testified that Alvah had worked for him for several weeks and that when the time came when he no longer desired his services, Alvah vented his indignation by giving him a thorough beating, which included a dislocated shoulder. Alvah denied the attack, but failed to convince the court of his innocence and was sentenced to a three months' term in jail. He appealed.

John Tatallas was charged with assault and battery on his wife, and the counsel for the pair having reported that all the difficulties had been satisfactorily smoothed out, the case was accordingly dismissed. Later in the session Mrs. Tatallas appeared in tears at the door of the court, and was escorted to the clerk's office where a fresh complaint for assault was taken out.

INTER-ALLIED COMMISSION INVESTIGATING THE SITUATION IN POLAND

WARSAW, Tuesday, Feb. 18.—(By the Associated Press)—The Inter-Allied commission appointed by the peace conference to investigate the situation in Poland is rapidly getting settled and is preparing to face many problems, the most important of which are the food supply and the differences between the Poles and the Ukrainians regarding the oil region near Lemberg.

In regard to the oil dispute, the Ukrainian government announces that it will not negotiate with the Poles as long as the Poles occupy any of the territory in dispute.

The Ukrainians threaten to burn the oil wells in their possession if they are forced to retreat. It is estimated that 500,000,000 francs of French, British and Belgian capital, is invested in the oil fields. The Ukrainians are obtaining arms by the sale of oil in Budapest and other places.

The American members of the mission believe that after first aid in the form of clothes and food is given to Poland, credit should be extended so that the relief work can proceed along regular lines.

The inter-allied mission must fix the boundaries of Poland and the neighboring states so that there shall be no more dispute between neighbors.

The Polish campaign against the Bolsheviks and peasant bands becomes more active each day. The Poles found a large quantity of munitions at Brast Litovsk. They are getting guns and rifles from the retiring Germans and even from the Bolsheviks.

FLYNN CHAIRMAN OF HUB FINANCE BOARD

BOSTON, Feb. 20.—Gov. Coolidge yesterday nominated George A. Flynn, assistant corporation counsel for the city of Boston, to be chairman of the Boston finance commission at a salary of $5000 a year, to succeed John H. Murphy, who has been appointed fire commissioner by Mayor Peters.

The governor also nominated William F. Churchill of Boston to be a member of the state commission on firemen's relief funds. Mr. Churchill succeeds John Grady, who resigned.

STRIKE AT HOG ISLAND

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 20.—Work was virtually at a standstill at the Hog Island shipyard today due to a strike of 100 foremen for higher pay. Recently they asked for an increase of approximately $6 a week. This would bring their weekly earnings to about $70. About 25,000 persons are at the yard.

KEEP LOOKING YOUNG

It's Easy—If You Know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

The secret of keeping young is to feel young — to do this you must watch your liver and bowels — there's no need of having a sallow complexion — dark rings under your eyes — pimples — a bilious look in your face — dull eyes with no sparkle. Your doctor will tell you ninety per cent of all sickness comes from inactive bowels and liver.

Dr. Edwards, a well-known physician in Ohio, perfected a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil to act on the liver and bowels, which he gave to his patients for years.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, are gentle in their action yet always effective. They bring about that exuberance of spirit, that natural buoyancy which should be enjoyed by everyone, by toning up the liver and clearing the system of impurities.

You will know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets by their olive color. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

Stamford Extract Plant Wiped Out—12 Buildings Burned

STAMFORD, Conn., Feb. 20.—Fire swept the plant of the Stamford Extract Manufacturing company here last night, and between 12 and 15 brick and wooden buildings in an area of 10 acres were destroyed. Frequent explosions of chemicals and a high wind prevented the firemen from checking the flames. The loss was estimated at $750,000.

THREATS TO GET MONEY

LAWRENCE, Feb. 20.—The police last night were investigating letters received by several residents of the adjoining town of Andover in which it is alleged that threats were made in connection with demands for money in support of the striking textile workers here. The police did not make public the names of the signers of the letters.

John Golden, president of the United Textile Workers of America, in a letter received by the local head of this organization yesterday, reiterated the determination of the national body to

Fifteen hundred husky young Americans are wanted to learn the business of firing boilers on the new ships of Uncle Sam's merchant marine.

Yes, Uncle Sam is going to need a lot of healthy young men to keep the steam up in the marine service, and can use 1500 applicants a month until further notice. Young men wishing to become members of this branch of the service should apply to the local enlisting station which has been established at Liggett drug store on Merrimack street, or write to Henry Howard, director of recruiting for the merchant marine custom house, Boston.

The men accepted will be placed on training ships at $30 a month training pay for a month, and will then be sent on deep water voyages at $75 a month. Uniform and board are furnished. The voyages will be varied, to allow the recruits to see as much of the world as possible, and the possibilities of promotion are very good for those who show aptitude in their new duties.

Discharged soldiers and naval reservists are eligible for this work, and any young man of good physique and habits, weighing 140 pounds or more, will be accepted.

SEN. WEEKS ACCUSES COMPTROLLER WILLIAMS OF RULING WITH "HEAVY HAND"

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20.—Senator Weeks of Massachusetts continued his attack upon Comptroller of the Currency Williams today before the senate banking committee. He said Mr. Williams had a "quarrelsome disposition" and was prone to get into difficulty with those engaged in the banking business.

The small proportion of increases in national banks compared to the number of state banks established annually, the senator asserted, was due to the fear of discipline imposed by the comptroller and his manner of ruling with a "heavy hand."

WATCH ON THE RHINE

Big British Force Will Make German War of Revenge Impossible

LONDON, Feb. 20.—The British government intends to maintain an army of 500,000 men during 1919, Col. Winston Spencer Churchill, secretary of state for war, announced at a meeting here yesterday.

It will be necessary to keep a strong well-disciplined British army on the Rhine for some time to come, he declared. There is no expectation that the army of occupation in Germany can be maintained on any other basis this year than the compulsory basis, he said, but for the rest the government is replacing the conscripted men on far distant foreign stations with volunteers.

The whole effectiveness of the League of Nations depends upon the allies having a reasonably trustworthy military force in close proximity to Germany, Col. Churchill said.

"We are going to take measures," he added, "to make it physically impossible for Germany to begin a war for revenge, at any rate in our lifetime. We are going to take a few trustworthy persons well provided with what President Wilson would call instrumentalities, to keep watch by the Rhine and to make Germany pay reparation for the damage she has done."

STRIKE SPREADS IN GERMANY

BERLIN, Wednesday, Feb. 19 (By the Associated Press).—The general strike in the Ruhr industrial district continues to spread in spite of the fact that a large majority of the miners, as shown by votes taken at many places, oppose the movement.

The socialist Vorwarts and the bourgeois newspapers declare that the strike is a political movement instigated by Spartacan and Independent socialist leaders.

Spartacans from Dusseldorf, according to reports received here, have disarmed the police of Muhlheim and taken away cannon and mine throwers from the Muhlheim barracks for use against government troops.

The Spartacans announced their intention of carrying the strike into central Germany for "a final struggle between labor and capital."

The police and local militia at Gelsenkirchen have risen against the Spartacans and driven them from the buildings which they occupied earlier in the week.

At Elberfeld the Spartacans proclaimed a general strike and compelled the factories to close. A lively fight was carried on for possession of the railway station, but the Spartacans finally occupied it. There were losses on both sides.

AMUSEMENT NOTES

Below is what the press agents of the different theatres say of the current attractions and of others to come later.

B. F. KEITH'S THEATRE

It's a big job bill at the B. F. Keith theatre this week, with Pat Rooney, best of laugh makers, heading it. Never did the diminutive comedian and dancer please more than on the occasion of his present visit. He is all joy and happiness and lively legs and new songs. If there are any more like him on the vaudeville stage, they haven't been located. He is assisted by Joseph Santos.

Another wonderful comedy team is that of Homer Dickson and Gracie Dean. They are alive every minute of the time, and they carry an atmosphere with them that is decidedly different. Miss Dean's baby girl stunt is a smashing success.

And how about Chinko, the juggler, and his partner, the wonderful cyclist? The act goes with great speed and it is a knockout right from the start.

And George N. Brown, the champion mile walker of the world, and Shastley Weston, Boy Scout, who enters into a match with him right on the stage, are producers of much fun. Other good acts are those of Otto Kerner & Co., in "The Kick" and Reaney in a nautical stunt, and Bowman & Brooks in a classy musical act. There will be three shows on Saturday, beginning at 1:30, 4:30 and 7:45 p. m.

LOWELL OPERA HOUSE

If you haven't seen the week's presentation by the Emerson All Star players at the Lowell Opera House, you should avail yourself of the remaining opportunity. "The Wife He Bought," an unusually good comedy drama that tells a gripping story of a brave young girl who gives herself up to a rascal man from the next town, save her father from financial ruin. How the young man eventually wins the love and respect, is well told in the four acts. Julian Noy and Miss Jane Salisbury were never seen to better advantage. Some of their best emotional and dramatic efforts are reflected in their work. The other members of the cast are also good, and the staging of the piece most commendable.

Next week that greatest of all plays, "Madame X," with Ione Magrane and Walter Gilbert of the Haverhill company in the leading roles.

THE STRAND

"Stolen Orders" will be shown at the Strand for the remainder of the week. By special arrangement with the producers and at considerable extra expense, Manager Sellman has succeeded in securing this wonderfully thrilling super-sensational production for the last three days of the week. This change comes as a result of a general demand from the thousands of patrons who were unable to see the presentation during the first of the week. On Monday night it was found necessary to stop selling tickets soon after the doors were opened, and the same rule applied the following nights. Many of the regular patrons of the theatre experienced disappointment and dissatisfaction at the extraordinary demand to see this truly remarkable picture. The management, in order to take care of the New York yesterday afternoon and, by special arrangement, secured permission to hold the picture for the full week. It is the first time in a season that this rule was brushed aside to meet such a condition. Our advice now is to make application early during the remainder of the week and do not be among the disappointed ones. We positively cannot hold it longer than this week.

"Stolen Orders" was produced by William A. Brady at a minimum original cost of $200,000. It is a picture of a thrilling bank robbery, a third of a glimpse of the great American deed, another one of the United States by the Atlantic seacoast, and one of our big difficulties. A fight between two men in the banks of the world, during which the combatants fall into the ocean, is only one of the numerous thrilling scenes enacted. And the all-star cast is the best ever put together for any film presentation. Jane Blividge, Montana Love, Carlie Blackwell, Kitty Gordon, George MacQuarrie, Madge Evans and others are seen in excellent roles. Remember, the prices for this performance remain the same.

And the rest of the bill will be made up of brand new features, including Carlie Blackwell and Evelyn Greely in one of the best of pictures, "Courage for Two." This offering is a hummer. It keeps buzzing from the very beginning to the end. There isn't a single solitary dull moment in the entire film. The stars do some of the very best work of their career in it. You'll enjoy this picture.

Then there's a Tim Mix comedy, "Hearts and Saddles," that is sure to meet with the popular approval of all lovers of good, wholesome humor. The Universal Weekly will be the very latest and most diverting to be heard in new song numbers.

The local evening newspaper is the paper that reaches the home when the whole family is there to read it. This Sun this this field in Lowell.

Counts Charging Seditious

NEW YORK, Feb. 20.—Scott Nearing, one time professor in the University of Pennsylvania and Toledo university and a socialist candidate in this city in the last congressional campaign was acquitted of seditious writings by a federal jury here yesterday.

The American Socialist society, co-defendant, was found guilty on both counts in the indictment. The jury was given the case at 1 o'clock Tuesday afternoon and returned its verdict after deliberating approximately 28 hours.

The indictments were based on a publication by the Rand book store, operated by the American Socialist society, on Nearing's pamphlet, "The Great Madness," in which he discussed militarism.

The two counts on which the society was convicted, charged the society and Nearing individually with having attempted to cause insubordination and refusal to perform duty in the army and navy, and with having attempted to interfere with enlistment.

Two other counts, charging Nearing and the society with conspiracy in the publication of the pamphlet, had been dropped before the case was given to the jury.

Next week that greatest of all plays, "Madame X," with Ione Magrane and Walter Gilbert of the Haverhill company in the leading roles.

THE STRAND

"Stolen Orders" will be shown at the Strand for the remainder of the week. By special arrangement with the producers and at considerable extra expense, Manager Sellman has succeeded in securing this wonderfully thrilling super-sensational production for the last three days of the week. This change comes as a result of a general demand from the thousands of patrons who were unable to see the presentation during the first of the week. On Monday night it was found necessary to stop selling tickets soon after the doors were opened, and the same rule applied the following nights. Many of the regular patrons of the theatre experienced disappointment and dissatisfaction at the extraordinary demand to see this truly remarkable picture. The management, in order to take care of the New York yesterday afternoon and, by special arrangement, secured permission to hold the picture for the full week. It is the first time in a season that this rule was brushed aside to meet such a condition. Our advice now is to make application early during the remainder of the week and do not be among the disappointed ones. We positively cannot hold it longer than this week.

"Stolen Orders" was produced by William A. Brady at a minimum original cost of $200,000. It is a picture of a thrilling bank robbery, a third of a glimpse of the great American deed, another one of the United States by the Atlantic seacoast, and one of our big difficulties. A fight between two men in the banks of the world, during which the combatants fall into the ocean, is only one of the numerous thrilling scenes enacted. And the all-star cast is the best ever put together for any film presentation. Jane Blividge, Montana Love, Carlie Blackwell, Kitty Gordon, George MacQuarrie, Madge Evans and others are seen in excellent roles. Remember, the prices for this performance remain the same.

And the rest of the bill will be made up of brand new features, including Carlie Blackwell and Evelyn Greely in one of the best of pictures, "Courage for Two." This offering is a hummer. It keeps buzzing from the very beginning to the end. There isn't a single solitary dull moment in the entire film. The stars do some of the very best work of their career in it. You'll enjoy this picture.

Then there's a Tim Mix comedy, "Hearts and Saddles," that is sure to meet with the popular approval of all lovers of good, wholesome humor. The Universal Weekly will be the very latest and most diverting to be heard in new song numbers.

NEARING IS ACQUITTED

American Socialist Society

Found Guilty on Two

Counts Charging Seditious

NEW YORK, Feb. 20.—Scott Nearing, one time professor in the University of Pennsylvania and Toledo university and a socialist candidate in this city in the last congressional campaign was acquitted of seditious writings by a federal jury here yesterday.

The American Socialist society, co-defendant, was found guilty on both counts in the indictment. The jury was given the case at 1 o'clock Tuesday afternoon and returned its verdict after deliberating approximately 28 hours.

The indictments were based on a publication by the Rand book store, operated by the American Socialist society, on Nearing's pamphlet, "The Great Madness," in which he discussed militarism.

The two counts on which the society was convicted, charged the society and Nearing individually with having attempted to cause insubordination and refusal to perform duty in the army and navy, and with having attempted to interfere with enlistment.

Two other counts, charging Nearing and the society with conspiracy in the publication of the pamphlet, had been dropped before the case was given to the jury.

ner love and respect, is well told in the four acts. Julian Noy and Miss Jane Salisbury were never seen to better advantage. Some of their best emotional and dramatic efforts are reflected in their work. The other members of the cast are also good, and the staging of the piece most commendable.

IT PAYS TO READ ADS TOO

The old saying, "It pays to advertise," is as true now as it ever was, and more so. But in pointing out the profit attached to advertising in this manner, it pays to read advertisements, all of them. It will pay the reader to read all the advertisements in today's Sun.

There are different ways in which it pays the reader to be acquainted with the ads in this paper. The most consequential way is, of course, in the amounts of money saved. There is a payoff to be made in the amounts of money saved. When a merchant makes a profit on goods, it is under the burden of proving he will sell his goods at a profit. It is under the burden of proving that one generally gets a good value for money and satisfaction the ad reader is given by the advertiser. It is under the burden of proving that you know exactly what you want and where you will find it, if you don't have to look in many places and waste time looking for the article sought.

The best stores advertise. You will get the best quality of goods and the best values for the money in the best stores. If a store does business enough to advertise, it is doing business enough to sell at bargain prices. Beware of the store which does not advertise. It is not doing business enough to advertise. You can correctly estimate the standard of merchandising and find out the lowest and most profitable stores in which to trade by reading all the ads in this paper.

BORAH THE BORE

Senator Borah of Idaho, is an aspirant for the republican nomination for president of the United States. It is a praiseworthy aspiration to believe one is capable of completely filling the office of president of the United States.

In our private and national life, however, we Americans still retain some scruples about the manner in which a man shall start to get a better job or start to obtain a political office.

Idaho may be well enough satisfied with Senator Borah, but a good part of the rest of the country is beginning to think of him as a national pest. An actor or a politician who is always flitting around, worrying himself and those surrounding him, into fits of desperation because he is afraid he will not be placed exactly in the middle of the spotlight, is always a pest.

President Wilson is going to give a nice dinner party at the White House to members of the foreign relations committee of congress, and in some part at least, will discuss the constitution of the proposed league of nations and incidentally report on what his high stewardship has accomplished. Republican senators, even if they come from Idaho, are not barred from this perfectly good party and have, in fact, been cordially invited.

All the rest of the committee except Borah, said they would sample some White House food and have access to the best source of information on the peace conference. It is probably possible to reach in this country at the present time, Borah says he won't go. Borah says he wants to be free and unrestrained to keep on hammering against the president and against the league of nations, as has been his custom for some time now. Senator Lodge and Representative Rogers of Massachusetts say they will go. It looks now as if there wouldn't be any ghost to appear dragging chairs at this banquet because, as we have intimated, this Shakespearean character doesn't get into the spotlight much and Senator Borah wants to be in the glare of it.

A JOB AND A MEDAL

The borough of Brooklyn announced the other day that every returned soldier and sailor would be given an excellent medal as a gift from the community.

Some one is always abstracting the jazz out of life and this time it was an editorial writer in Collier's Weekly. He said he wished Brooklyn would guarantee every returned soldier and sailor a job along with the medal.

It was a pertinent observation and presumably Brooklyn is doing the best she can in this respect, just as every other conscientious American city and town is trying to do its duty.

It's an important function to make it a certainty in this country that when a man's government calls him away from his job, in order that wage earners here shall be paid in dollars and not in marks, when he returns from the war the channels are open by which he can be self supporting again.

Medals! Yes, by all means. No American city or town should feel it is above honoring every soldier and sailor boy with a suitable medal. But let this business of getting their jobs back for them proceed with speed, and uninterrupted. There may be times when getting one's job back may have the same effect as taking copious quantities of the mystical "elixir of life."

WAS DISRAELI WRONG?

In James Morgan's well written story of "Abraham Lincoln, the Boy and the Man," in the chapter devoted to how the world received the news of Lincoln's assassination, this sentence occurs: "Benjamin Disraeli in his speech on Lincoln in the British House of Commons, declared that 'assassination never has changed the history of the world.'"

This speech was delivered in the spring of 1865. It is now 54 years ago that Disraeli made this statement which, reflecting on a past condition, was tinged with a prophecy of what he believed would be a condition obtaining in the future.

Many times men do not give sufficient consideration to the vicious human traits of greed and desire for power. The character and traits of the German people were, even at that time, worthy of the study and analysis of Britain's great prime minister.

Within four years, the history of Europe has contradicted what Disraeli said he believed in 1865. June 28, 1914, the Archduke Ferdinand and the Duchess of Hohenberg were assassinated at Sarajevo, Bosnia, by a Serbian student. It was Germany's excuse to leap at the throat of Europe.

On the surface of things at least, this assassination is responsible for the map of Europe being changed. This assassination brought to Germany what may, in the future, develop into a fine republican form of government. Germany has been reborn as a republic. This assassination marked the entrance into the international arena of the United States as a recognized world power. The killing of two "small time" royal personages over in Serbia very materially hastened the proposal and acceptance of the league of nations idea.

Contrary to Disraeli, assassinations do count. The flash from the killer's gun in Sarajevo started a war that set the world on fire. This world-war was a crucible out of which mankind may emerge with a cleaner mind and cleaner intention, prepared to live more righteously as an individual and more peaceably as a nation.

BOOSTING WATER PRICE

After March 1 it will cost people here owning houses a higher rate for the water used. Apparently, it was an increase that had to come. The water department must have additional revenue to pay for its necessary extensions and current expenses. Where else can this additional revenue be obtained than extracting it from the people who own the houses where the water is used? There is a possibility that a more efficient management of the water department in past years might have made conditions such today that this raise in the rates would not be necessary, but this too, is a debatable question.

There is a little grain of satisfaction contained in the argument advanced by Commissioner Morse that the rates should be increased. He says for a long time Lowell people have been paying the lowest water rates of any city of this size in the state. Perhaps we ought to have paid more for our water, although the water is not of particularly good quality. We'll pay more after March 1st. Water is something we have to have, even if Charlie Morse makes it come high.

In one day we read that Canada and Argentina were to grant monetary credits to war ravaged European countries. It seemed a true and vivid exemplification of the new world leading substantial crutches to a very badly crippled old world.

MODERN SURGERY

The boy we were sorriest for in our youth was the son of the richest man in town.

In spirit, physique and mental equipment he was a born leader. But he had a patched arm.

A twisted shadow of an arm, with a slender, twisted, helpless hand at the end of it.

And as a boy he stood on the side lines and watched.

In college his only comfort came in the classroom.

He made good as a lawyer in later years, but he had a handicap that doubtless wrung his mental withers every time he addressed a new jury.

In after years we heard that his arm was dislocated in childhood. The fault was unsuspected and when discovered, surgery of those days was helpless.

The other day, a young hopeful of our acquaintance, aged two and a half, dived head first off a bed.

When he was picked up nothing appeared wrong, but later we noticed that he refused to use one arm.

After two days he was taken to a doctor, who could discover nothing wrong.

But, not content, the doctor used the X-ray and there was disclosed a fracture of the upper arm; a fracture that had not separated. What doctors call a green limb fracture.

Splints for a few weeks and a good straight arm. But without the X-ray a fine chance for another twisted member to haunt a soul as boy and man through life.

Modern surgery, with its exactness, its definite discovery of hidden hurts, its replacements and removals and regenerations, is taking a lot of the old bad twists out of life.

And that surgery that makes a specialty of making twisted children straight, and replacing crutches with sound legs of adequate length, and getting the spinal column to run in the curve of beauty its Maker intended: that surgery is truly heavenly, for in heaven, we take it, there are neither crooked bodies nor distorted souls.

We expect shortly that the book-makers may announce they will receive bets and offer terms on the sporting proposition of who is nearest right in regard to when the 26th will start home, Gen. Pershing, Gen. March or Congressman Fuller being offered as choices.

You have probably heard of dinners so well cooked and of such fine quality of food that people who knew about them told you they were fine enough to "put you to sleep."

Just by way of a contrast in things, the campaigners for the big fund of the Boston Y.W.C.A., finding the campaign lagging in total results, announced they would hold a "wake up luncheon."

Who says cats are no good and show no affection besides consuming food that ought to be fed to hens or a pig? Let such people read the news from the Hub that recently, when a cat show was held for the benefit of the American fund for the French wounded, the net profit was $700, and reflect accordingly!

The Maine legislature is apparently to seriously consider enacting a law preventing the consumption of cigars in that big state. We use the word "consumption" in this instance, instead of "smoking," because of the rapidly which which cigar smokers use up a package. It is a far cry from Maine to Kansas, where the cigar for some time has not legally been sold, but not so far a cry but that the straight-mouthed and determined State of Mainer may send the cigar packing along with booze.

If President Wilson wants to win the hearts of the real Bostonians, upon his arrival in the Hub, in the morning he will position for a plate of codfish cakes or codfish hash, and at noon or the evening meal he will request a plate of—

If the Germans accept Herr Erzberger's publicly expressed belief that he has confidence Marshal Poch's given word will be kept, it will be a perfect that the nation progresses in its first lessons of learning that scraps of paper and verbally given pledges many times go closely associated with a nation's honor and a sacred obligation to be kept inviolate.

Judging from the testimony of Col. Harbord given before the senate investigating committee, in regard to Lenin, if Lenin ever makes head, there is going to be some special red fire set off and hot drinks passed around in honor of the new arrival. The colonel says, in describing Lenin, "He is the incarnation of Satan, an expert liar and I don't think he believes what he himself says."

SKIN IS TURNING BLUE

Soldier's Illness Puzzles Physicians—Lawton Removed to Camp Devens Hospital

BOSTON, Feb. 20.—The case of Edmund M. Lawton of Marlboro, who was taken ill at his home Tuesday while on a furlough from Camp Merritt, N. J., is attracting general attention among the army doctors.

Lieut. Wilson, who went from northeastern department headquarters yesterday to attend him, reported that portions of Lawton's skin has turned blue and he is mystified as to the exact cause.

Lawton was injured and wounded overseas, his papers show, and had not been discharged from treatment at Camp Merritt. He was taken to the Camp Devens hospital, as the nearest to his home, and special attention is being given his case.

If You Need a Medicine You Should Have the Best

Have you ever stopped to reason why it is that so many products that are extensively advertised, all at once drop out of sight and are soon forgotten? The reason is plain—the article did not fulfill the promises of the manufacturer. This applies more particularly to a medicine. A medicinal preparation that has real curative value almost sells itself, as like an endless chain system the remedy is recommended by those who have been benefited, to those who are in need of it.

A prominent druggist says: "Take for example Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, a preparation I have sold for many years and never hesitate to recommend, for in almost every case it shows excellent results, as many of my customers testify. No other kidney remedy has so large a sale."

According to sworn statements and verified testimony of thousands who have used the preparation, the success of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is due to the fact, so many people claim, that it cures almost ever wish in over-coming kidney, liver and bladder ailments, corrects urinary troubles and neutralizes the uric acid which causes rheumatism.

You may receive a sample bottle of Swamp-Root by Parcel Post. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Birmingham, N. Y., and enclose ten cents; also mention The Lowell Sun. Large and medium size bottles for sale at all drug stores.

LAW HAS NO TEETH IN IT

Interesting Assertion by Member of Gas and Electric Light Commission

Special to The Sun. STATE HOUSE, Boston, Feb. 20.—"The law regulating the business of gas and electric light companies has no teeth in it and until this condition can be remedied large dividends will continue to be distributed and prices to the consumer advance in proportion."

This assertion was made yesterday by Commissioner Levensberg of the board of gas and electric light commissioners in arguing before a legislative committee that his board should be granted authority to see to it that the public utility companies do not "dip" in to their surplus accounts to pay dividends of unusual amounts.

Mr. Levensberg charged that this practice is common among a certain number of companies. He said that it is not unusual for his board to receive an application for authority to put into effect an increase in rates on the ground that the company has found it necessary to expend large amounts of money in making improvements. He told the committee that funds for this purpose should come from the surplus accounts but being "dissipated in dividends" were not on hand when needed for the purpose for which they were intended.

As an illustration of the methods employed, he told of one company paying dividends ranging between 40 and 50 per cent over a period of five years, during which time it had eaten into its surplus account to the extent of 25 per cent.

"Instead of adding to this account from the profits it was making, it deliberately reduced them for the purpose of adding to the rate of dividend paid the stockholders, despite the fact that the rate in any case would have been on a juicy scale."

He urged that the board be given authority to lay down and enforce such general or specific requirements as to the disposition of surplus funds and take steps toward the proper handling of depreciation problems as might be deemed necessary.

The petition was taken under advisement. HOYT.

EMPLOYEES OF BAY STATE PUBLIC EMPLOYEES

Special to The Sun.

STATE HOUSE, Boston, February 20.—That employees of the Bay State Street Railway company are public employees, because of the control of the company now exercised by the board of public trustees, is the interesting contention raised yesterday by certain members of the legislature and by a prominent state official who is also a lawyer.

If the contention is sustained it will probably have the result of preventing

Break a Cold In Few Hours

First dose of "Pape's Cold Compound" relieves the cold and gripe misery—Don't stay stuffed up!

Relief comes instantly. A dose taken every two hours until three doses are taken will end gripe misery and break up a severe cold either in the head, chest, body or limbs.

It promptly opens clogged-up nostrils and air passages in the head, stops mucus discharge or nose running, relieves sick headache, dullness, feverishness, sore throat, sneezing, soreness and stiffness.

Don't stay stuffed-up! Quit blowing and snuffling! Ease your throbbing head! Nothing else in the world gives such prompt relief as "Pape's Cold Compound," which costs only a few cents at any drug store. It acts without assistance, tastes nice, causes no inconvenience. adjudication by the national war labor board in case the employees and the company should find themselves at any time in the future unable to agree in the matter of wages.

If these men are public employees it probably follows that the legislature alone would have the right to increase their wages, a decision to this effect having been reached in two cases last year. HOYT.

WOMAN SPEAKS IN GERMAN ASSEMBLY

WEIMAR, Wednesday, Feb. 19. (By the Associated Press.)—The German national assembly today heard a speech by a woman member, Frau Marie Juchacz, a social democratic delegate from Berlin. She made a logical address on a constructive political program and surprised the house by a violent attack on Count von Posadowsky-Wohner, and other conservative delegates.

She gained sympathy at the start by reversing the customary salutation to "Gentlemen and Ladies." Several times she was applauded, but she aroused the conservatives toward the end and President Ebert had to ring for order repeatedly. She praised the efforts of the government to rule Germany and said that the women were grateful for what had been done for them.

She aroused the conservatives when she answered the question which Count von Posadowsky-Wohner asked several days ago: "What is to become of junkerism?"

"Turning to the count she repeated his question and answered it by saying: 'All the world knows.'"

NATURALIZATION SESSION
Clerk Dillingham of the superior court came to this city today for the purpose of giving out second naturalization papers. Mr. Dillingham arrived at the court house in Gorham street at 10 o'clock this morning and in the course of the forenoon he attended to 25 applicants, who were accompanied by their witnesses. This afternoon about 15 candidates were looked after. Mr. Dillingham will come to this city tomorrow for the purpose of receiving first naturalization papers.

A GREAT CHANGE ENTERS INTO LIFE OF STOREKEEPER

A certain unassuming gentleman in this city who happens to be a prominent merchant and who up to a few weeks ago had been a recluse because of his physical condition tells this remarkable and most interesting tale:

"For a number of years," he said, "I have been so closely confined to my business working zealously to make my store representative in every respect that wear and tear finally got me, my face became drawn and haggard and my disposition seemed to urge people to evade me. It was then that I began to despise my own company."

My bookkeeper one day suggested that I needed a rest and that my nerves required attention. She told me that her father had taken Phosphated Iron when in my condition. 'Look at him now,' she said, 'he works ten hours a day and is the happiest man in the world.'"

"All this happened less than a month ago. I followed the advice and look at me now. Back in the harness with a smile all the while. I am feeling more 81 than ever. When I see a tired looking face the name of Phosphated Iron immediately comes in my mind. I am convinced that it is converting many a worn out body into a life rich in thought, ambition and enthusiasm."

Special Notice: To insure doctors and their patients getting the genuine Phosphated Iron we have put in capsules only, so do not allow dealers to sell you pills or tablets.

I consider that I owe my life to 'Fruit-a-lives' and I want to say to those who suffer from Indigestion, Constipation or Headaches—try 'Fruit-a-lives' and you will get well."

Doesn't hurt to lift them

Don't suffer! A tiny bottle of Freezone costs but a few cents at any drug store. Apply a few drops on the corns, calluses and 'hard skin' on bottom of feet, then lift them off.

ST. MICHAEL'S PARISH ANNUAL REUNION

Parishioners of St. Michael's parish, old and young, held away in Association hall yesterday afternoon and evening upon the occasion of the annual parish reunion of the Centralville church. Not only was the parish itself completely represented, but so excellent was the program of entertainment that it drew friends from all parts of the city.

In the afternoon the hall was given over to the youngsters and in the evening the adults were in the limelight. Both times brought capacity audiences and the social was a success from the word "go." Rev. John J. Shaw, the pastor, and the other priests of the parish as well as clergy from other parts of the city were on hand to take part in the happy occasion.

In the afternoon a specially arranged program for the "kiddies" was carried out and included games and sports of all descriptions. A number of older people were in charge and they enjoyed the affair equally as much as the young people. The hall was tastefully decorated with greenery, bunting and cut flowers and steamers of incense added materially to the brilliancy of the general effect.

Surrounding the centre of the hall were various tables and booths from which one could buy anything from a pin cushion to ice cream. The booths were in charge of the various parish societies.

The evening program was in the capable hands of the knights of Columbus Glee club who staged their recent success, "A Night in a K. of C. Hut." Manager B. P. Pickett of B. F. Keith's theatre also provided several acts from this week's bill at that theatre. Following the entertainment general dancing was enjoyed until well into the morning.

The K. of C. entertainers were in charge of William F. Thornton, musical director. A mixed chorus of some 75 voices together with a goodly sprinkling of the city's better soloists contributed to a most enjoyable offering. Andrew Molloy was interpreter and Walter O'Neil, accompanist. To those who took part as well as to the hosts of the K. of C., it is due no little appreciation for their efforts.

The complete program was as follows:

Opening chorus, entire company; "When the Boys Come Home," Andrew A. McCarthy; "Good Bye, Alexander," Mrs. May Dillon Doherty; solo, selected, James S. King; Salvation lasses, Miss Bertha Dixon; "Tacklin' 'em Down," John Stapleton; solo, selected, Francis A. Connor; solo, selected, James Roane; "How'd You Like To Be My Dad," Miss Alice Dixon; solo, selected, Joseph Egan; "And Everything," Frank P. McCarthy; grand finale, "Your Boy and My Boy," solo sustained by Thomas E. Tobin.

FOUR MASS MEETINGS

Lawrence Strike Secretary Covered Considerable Ground Here Last Evening

Line Kaplan, secretary of the Lawrence strike, was the principal speaker at four meetings of mill operatives, which were held in this city last night. Two of the meetings drew fair sized audiences but the other two met with slim attendance. It is said that the purpose of these meetings is to form an organization among the textile workers of this city in opposition to the Lowell Textile Council and the United Textile Workers of America.

Mr. Kaplan was accompanied on his flying trip through the city by Lithuanian, Polish, Greek and Assyrian interpreters, whose duty it was to translate in their respective languages the remarks of the speaker. The first place visited was the hall at 22 Middle street, where a meeting of French-speaking operatives was scheduled to be held. Upon his arrival at the hall Mr. Kaplan found four men and one woman in attendance. The small audience, however, did not prevent him from delivering his address. Later he repaired to the basement of the Greek Orthodox church in Jefferson street, where he was received by a couple of hundred Greek operatives. From there the speaker went to Graton hall, where about 25 Portuguese men and women greeted him. His last speech was delivered at the Polish club in Coburn street and the attendance there was fairly large. The Lawrence visitor traveled in an automobile.

In every instance Mr. Kaplan's address was brief and his stay in the hall was of short duration. His mission seemed to be one of organization rather than to arouse strike enthusiasm. It was stated at one of the meetings that an effort would be made to hold a mass meeting on the common Sunday afternoon and several committees were appointed to take care of the arrangements among the several nationalities employed in the local mills.

SOCIAL AND FRATERNAL

A very interesting meeting of the members of industry council, I.A.A., was held last evening with Regent Nell A. Clark in the chair. The invitation of Grand Regent Herbert A. Billings to take part in a membership recruiting contest was accepted and routine business was transacted. At the close of the business session cigars were passed and a boxing exhibition in the line of entertainment was given by Frederick

A WISE PRECAUTION
Commissioner Morse of the fire department, has asked City Engineer Stephen Kearney for a blue print of the Central fire station in Palmer street and also of the fire alarm system of the city, showing where the various wires are located, so that in case anything should happen to the Palmer street house, there would be something on hand whereby one could ascertain the location of the various conduits that go to make up the alarm system.

Henry C. Fernald, an electrician in the fire department, is said to be the only man in the city who knows the location of the various wires and Mr. Morse argues that he is just as mortal as anybody. In the event of his death, there would be some difficulty in locating wires.

INDEFINITELY SUSPENDED
Charles J. Morse of the fire and water departments has also been indefinitely suspended by Commissioner Morse as the latter believes there is no present need of his services. He has been getting $29.50 per week.

William F. Joyce, a foreman in the water department, who has been drawing $2.10 per day as a foreman, was notified late yesterday afternoon that he had been indefinitely suspended. According to Mr. Morse, Joyce has been reporting for work each day, but that there has not been anything for him to do.

Robert Rutherford, a lineman in the fire department, has also been indefinitely suspended by Commissioner Morse as the latter believes there is no present need of his services. He has been getting $29.50 per week.

American Commander Raps

Reports—Allies Capable of Taking Care of Reds

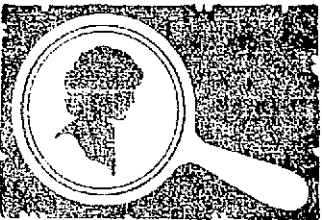

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20.—(Col. Geo. P. Stewart, commanding the American troops in northern Russia, cabled the war department today that "all reports of the condition of troops in northern Russia" were not warranted by the facts.

The health of the entire command is excellent, the report says, the sick and wounded are well cared for, and "the allied command is capable of taking care of itself against the whole Bolshevik army."

METHODIST SOCIAL UNION

Rev. Arthur P. Hall, D.D., of Malden, addressed the Ladies' Methodist Social Union last night at its meeting at the Methodist church on the topic, "Prevent World Conditions and the Church." Dr. Hall's address was a powerful appeal to the church and the church to do their part toward preventing the world's ills in the great era of reconstruction.

The union was most hospitably entertained by Rev. N. W. Matthews and his people, and a splendid supper was served prior to the social part of the program. The attendance was large and included representatives from every Methodist church in the city. The president of the union, John M. Washburn, presided and introduced Dr. Hall.

THEY WERE RIGHT

BRUSSELS, Feb. 19.—(British Wireless Service.)—Maximilian Harden, editor of Die Zukunft of Berlin, in an interview in Le Soir of Brussels, declares that the German people were misled as to the cause of the war. They believed at the outbreak that Germany was in the right and even believe now that right was on their side.

However, William, Harden, declared, was drawn into the war against his own wishes, but once hostilities began it was he who kept alive national hatred and was responsible for the methods of warfare for which the world would never forgive Germany.

"Our people," said Harden, "did not know and do not now know. They loyally believed that right was on their side. If they had not they would not have fought and suffered as they did. They believed in a coalition against Germany. They did not understand that Great Britain, France and Russia had no other object than to protect themselves against the adverse designs of the Kaiser."

"They did not understand that the violation of Belgium was a crime which turned the enlightened universe against Germany. They are still certain that if Germany had not invaded Belgium, Great Britain and France were ready to do so. Personally, I do not think France ever thought of such a thing, and if she had Great Britain would not have permitted it."

"But it was an old idea of the Kaiser. In one of his outbursts he once said to Leopold II.: 'If there is a war I shall go through Belgium. If she resists, Belgium will not exist any longer.'"

"It is the 30 years of reign of William II. which carried responsibility for the war. It is the teaching which has poisoned youth. It is the spirit of militarism that has been soaked into the people."

"Kaiser Wilhelm has drawn into it himself, perhaps against his own sentiments. He was not warlike; he was not even courageous, and I know that he did struggle to conquer his personal feelings before he could be brought to sign the mobilization decree."

"But once war was declared it was he who kept alive the national hatred. It was he who used methods of war for which the world will never pardon him. Believe me, it causes me terrible pain to have to admit this."

When the interviewer pointed out to Harden that no protests against Germany's methods ever were raised in Germany, Harden declared that even now not only the actors in the tragedy hesitate to admit Germany's guilt but that persons who have lost a brother or husband in the war desire to cling to the belief that they have suffered their share of bereavement in a good cause; they think it would take away from the dignity of their grief if they recognized that the cause for which their country fought was criminal.

AMERICANS IN RUSSIA GIVEN WAR CROSSES

ARCHANGEL, Tuesday, Feb. 18 (By the Associated Press).—Thirty officers and men of the American forces in northern Russia today were given French war crosses for gallant service under French command on the Volga railway front during the brief offensive against the Bolsheviks in September, October and November. The crosses were bestowed by the French commander in the presence of Maj. Gen. Edmund Ironside and Col. George E. Stewart, commanding the Americans in northern Russia. All comrades of the men honored were present, clad in Arctic costume, and the ceremony was below zero.

Most of the heroes are from Michigan.

MOREY MAKING GOOD AS HERRON REACHES PARIS

PHYSICAL DIRECTOR

DAVE MOREY, former Dartmouth basketball coach and later athletic coach at Lowell, is making good as director of physical education at Maiden high school. He has evolved a brand new exercise for the use of his pupils—boxing, which has been tried by the school in New Bedford. He has a class of 30 boys, all in uniform, going through the motions of shadow boxing, and to see pairs of them donning the gloves and giving a first class exhibition of the newly tried idea of school education.

Morey is a graduate of Maiden high school and stood high in Dartmouth college athletics for four years, being captain of the college football team and played the following three years on the varsity. Walter Camp named him a member of his all-American team as a halfback. He also played four years of baseball and captained the team in his senior year. He pitched for Worcester in the Eastern league and also caught on with Connie Mack's Athletics for a season.

Bolsheviki Behind Plot

ister, who called upon him late in the evening for the third time after the shooting.

The premier raised the question whether the supreme council should sit this afternoon as had been arranged and expressed the wish that the decision be left to the delegates of the other great powers. Consequently Paul Duma, the general secretary of the peace conference was instructed to call upon the American, British, Italian and Japanese delegations and get their views. It was considered probable early today that the delegates would suggest waiting for a few days, possibly until the first of next week, before resuming work.

Repents "It Is Nothing"

Personally, M. Clemenceau is impatient to resume his place at the head of the conference. As he refers to the subject in his conversation with those around him, he gives the impression of being able to resume the sittings again in four or five days, for he keeps repeating "It is nothing."

None the less his wound occasionally gives him much pain. He bears this exceptionally well and the twinges do not impair his customary good humor or prevent him indulging in lively sallies. Thus, shortly after he was wounded, when one of his colleagues, who is an old and trusted friend and particularly dear to him, came to see him, the premier, smiling broadly remarked: "The Maharaja of Bikaner invited me to hunt tiger in his country. Well it is the anarchists who have hunted the tiger but they missed him."

Spends Day in Armchair

The premier yesterday sent for Therese, the nun who nursed him when he was operated upon a few years ago, and she is now attending him. He spent the day yesterday in his arm chair, but asked that his favorite old grandfather's chair be brought from his country house at Bernouville.

The premier's mind never was clearer than his thought more rapid. He discusses his wound and his symptoms technically, just as if they were those of another person.

"Dotted Blacker Ones," Says "Tiger"

PARIS, Feb. 20.—(By the Associated Press.)—The premier's mind never was clearer than his thought more rapid. He discusses his wound and his symptoms technically, just as if they were those of another person.

"Hunting New War"

PARIS, Feb. 20.—(By the Associated Press.)—Cottin, Premier Clemenceau's assistant, stated as his reason for the attack that he planned to kill the premier because M. Clemenceau was the enemy of humanity and was preparing for another war.

Cottin Great Reader of Novels

PARIS, Feb. 20.—The father and the mother of Emile Cottin, who shot Premier Clemenceau, are simple working people. They live in Rue Convention, the father working in a factory to Issy les Moulineaux. A brother, aged 37, also works in a factory there. A second brother is five and one half years old.

Neighbors of the family describe Emile Cottin as being addicted to neither smoking nor drinking, but say he was a great reader of novels and books on astronomy and sociology. His father tried in vain to combat the anarchistic ideas of his son, but the latter ridiculed him as being old fashioned. When he heard the news of the attempted assassination, the father was at work, but felt a presentiment. It is said that the criminal was his son.

Emile Cottin has been under treatment for an affection of the heart and a disease of the lungs. He was taken to Saint Germain last night.

An Examination of the Automobile

In which the premier was riding when he was fired upon, showed seven distinct bullet marks.

N-Ray Examination

It was planned to make an N-Ray examination of Premier Clemenceau's wounds today. His condition was improving last night, but he was fatigued. Dr. G. L. Fauriol, Lanby and P. J. V. were in attendance, but despite that Clemenceau's appeal for an immediate N-Ray examination they refused to do so.

He told them he wanted

the work done as soon as possible

so that he could get back to work in a few days.

Messages of Sympathy

Expressions of sympathy reached the premier from all quarters. The chamber and senate discussed the shooting and were inundated and inundated that such an occurrence could take place. King George, the British house of commons and various loads of nations sent messages of sympathy, while M. Clemenceau's

CONFERES WITH WHITE, HIS

Colleague, on Proposed

Conference With Russians

PARIS, Wednesday, Feb. 19.—George D. Herron has arrived in Paris from Geneva and is in consultation with William Allen White, his American colleague in the proposed conference with Russian national leaders at Primorsk Island. There is as yet no definite announcement concerning plans for the meeting, but indications are that either that program or some other form of conference with the various Russian governments, either individually or collectively, will be arranged by the entente powers.

President Tschalkovsky of the Archangel government, M. Tefot, food commissioner under Kerensky, and Charles R. Crane, of Massachusetts, conferred with Secretary Lansing and other members of the American peace delegation today concerning Russian affairs.

Noris Syvokoff, minister of war in the Kerensky cabinet, is working on a plan looking to the federation of the various governments embracing the Bolshevik territory. He hopes to enlist 30,000,000 people in a united democratic movement.

CANADIAN TROOPS RETURN

HALIFAX, N. S., Feb. 20.—The transport Royal George from Liverpool today embarked 61 officers, 59 cadets and 1310 other ranks of the Canadian expeditionary force.

Home was crowded with distinguished visitors who called to inquire as to his injuries and express their sympathy.

"Tiger's" Chauffeur Decoded

The premier asked Major General Mordach, his military aide, to decorate Chauffeur Deraudin. The ceremony took place in the premier's bedroom. Deraudin was driving the car when the premier was fired upon. It was expected that Congens, another chauffeur, would be decorated.

All Praise Clemenceau

PARIS, Feb. 20.—Premier Clemenceau not so very long ago used to say that he did not believe he had a real friend in France. If he still cherished that belief after the victory over the Germans, it would seem that he can no longer do so, for this morning's Paris newspapers are a unit in expressing sympathy and praise.

"Tiger's" Own Story of Attack

PARIS, Feb. 20.—Premier Clemenceau's own story of the attack upon him as he told it to callers is given in the Matin today as follows: "Yesterday when I was passing that spot at the corner of the Boulevard Dulong, I remarked a strange silhouette figure upon the pavement showing some one examining me attentively. The silhouette was that of a rather evil-looking man. I said to myself, 'Hello, that fellow is up to no good.' This morning at the same spot, I perceived the same silhouette and immediately thought, 'Why, that's my friend of yesterday.'"

"I hadn't time to continue the reflection, for the individual's arm was raised, revolver in hand, and he fired at the door of the automobile and hit the window. I didn't reflect that there were perhaps other bullets in the revolver, and as soon as the first shot was fired, I leaped forward to see. Other shots followed rapidly, one after another, and I felt a sharp pain low down the back of my neck. The pain was so intense that I could not help crying out. I realized perfectly that I had been hit."
